The PENNSYLVANIA GAZETTE.

Containing the freſheſt Advices, Foreign and Domeſtic.

To Meſſieurs HALL and SELLERS.

GENTLEMEN,

I MUST once more requeſt the Favour of a Place in your Paper, that I may offer to the Public an Addreſs, which I ſincerely wiſh may be the laſt to which I ſhall be under a Neceſſity of ſoliciting their Attention.

THE Author of Lex Talionis has at length favoured me, in the laſt Chronicle, with a very elegant and elaborate Apology, which he has thought proper to introduce, by declaring, in the Words of Swift, "that he is wiſer To-day than he was Yeſterday." I cannot but congratulate him upon this ſudden Acquiſition of Knowledge, to which, I believe, the World is indebted for this laſt extraordinary Production. For my Part, I ſhould have thought myſelf extremely fortunate, if I could have boaſted of having received, from this reluctant Acknowledgment, any of that Information or Satisfaction which I might have expected. But, inſtead of this, I am to ſit down contented with a Declaration,----"that he has Reaſon to believe, I was not concerned in writing the Piece ſigned Tom Jackſon, V. S. and "therefore thinks neceſſary to acknowledge, that, as far as I "have denied the Charges inſinuated againſt me, I ought to be "credited, and thoſe Inſinuations ſhould not have the leaſt "Weight with the Public, unleſs ſtronger Evidence ſhould be produced." What a moſt amazing Inſtance of Condeſcenſion and Generoſity is this! After having urged againſt me, for an imaginary Offence, the horrid Inſinuation of having offered Violence to the Author of my Being, he very generouſly acknowledges,---- that the Public ought to ſuſpend their Belief, till he may have an Opportunity to ſupport, by ſtronger Evidence, his villainous Aſperſion. He has very modeſtly alledged, "that it is no Crime "to err, but a very great one not to acknowledge an Error." To do this conſciencious Gentleman ſtrict Juſtice, let us conſider the Nature of his Error, and the Purport of his Acknowledgment. He has endeavoured, by the moſt artful Inſinuation, propagated in the moſt public and extenſive Manner, to blaſt the Reputation of one who never injured him;----to ruin him in the Opinion of all honeſt Men; and to render him an Object of univerſal Deteſtation. He has ſuffered the Poiſon of his Slander to circulate freely for more than a Month, without making one Effort to ſtop its pernicious Courſe. When called upon publickly to maintain his villainous Charge, he finds himſelf unable to produce ſufficient Evidence, and very calmly requires the World not to credit his Inſinuations, unleſs he may hereafter offer more unexceptionable Teſtimony. This is the Error which he thinks no Crime, and this is the Acknowledgment which he conceives equal to the Injury. If the Warmth of my Reſentment has not totally deprived me of the Uſe of my Reaſon, I may venture to tranſlate, into a few intelligible Words, the whole Senſe of this laboured Apology; which amounts to no more than this honeſt Declaration: ----"To reſent a ſuppoſed Inſult offered to myſelf and my Friend, "I have boldly attempted to render my innocent Neighbour odi"ous and contemptible to all Mankind;---I have artfully endea"voured to effect the moſt villainous Purpoſe; but have unfor"tunately failed in my Deſigns;---I ſee nothing criminal in the "Attempt, and am only ſorry that it did not ſucceed." If this ſhould appear to be, as it undoubtedly is, the generous Meaning of my honourable Antagoniſt, will the unprejudiced World cenſure me for Preſumption, when I declare, that I require no other Authority than the Words of his own Conceſſion, to juſtify my having beſtowed upon him the Character of an infamous Aſſaſſin?

Though I may entertain Suſpicions very reaſonably grounded, yet I cannot pretend to ſay, that I poſitively know who are the Judges of this new-erected Tribunal, the Proceedings of which are carried on with more than catholic Rigour: But, to prove its Conſtitution to be illegal, and inconſiſtent with the Principles of Juſtice, I may venture to aſſert, that a Man may be tried and convicted, in a Cauſe of more Importance than that of Life itſelf, without being confronted with his Accuſer. I am unfortunately the firſt political Offender brought to the Bar of this awful Tribunal. I am charged with a Crime of the moſt infamous Nature. Inſtead of objecting to the Juriſdiction of the Court, I have ſubmitted to plead not guilty; and I will now carry my Submiſſion ſo far, as to declare to my malicious Proſecutor, that, if ever he will produce any ſtronger Evidence to ſupport his Charge, I will readily wave the Illegality of his Proceedings,---I will freely acquit him of Injuſtice and Oppreſſion, and receive, without repining, a Sentence of eternal Infamy.

I ſhall now devote one Minute to take Notice of that Paſſage, in which the Writer of Lex Talionis expreſſes a Surprize, "that "I could judge it neceſſary or proper to treat the Printer as if he "was the Author." In Anſwer to this, I ſhall only repeat what I have already urged in another Place. If the Printer of any thing ſcandalous or abuſive, reflecting upon the private Character of any Individual, ſhould obſtinately refuſe to give up his Author, he muſt, beyond all Contradiction, upon the invariable Principles of Juſtice, be anſwerable to the Perſon injured, for all the Injury he may have done.

Since the Riſe of that Diſpute, in which I have been ſo reluctantly involved, the many Miſrepreſentations which have been artfully and induſtriouſly circulated, induce me to offer the following Letters for the Examination of the Public, as the faireſt and moſt unexceptionable Mode of Appeal. I do not think myſelf at Liberty to make, at this time, any Remarks upon what has paſſed. I leave the Propriety and Conſiſtency of my Conduct to be determined by the Unprejudiced, and to the honeſt Cenſures of ſuch I ſhall ever very patiently ſubmit.

April 27, 1767. WILLIAM HICKS.

To His Ex--------y G------r Fn.

SIR,

TO this Hour I have waited in Expectation of receiving from the Author of Lex Talionis, that Acknowledgment to which I was ſo juſtly intitled. Two Numbers of the Chronicle have now been publiſhed, ſince I offered to the World a Vindication of my Character; and the Apology, which your Excellency gave me ſome Reaſon to expect, has not appeared; I am therefore under a Neceſſity of putting your Excellency in Mind of a Promiſe which you were pleaſed to make me, when I had the Honour of waiting upon you. I don't doubt, Sir, but you will recollect the Purport of your voluntary Engagement, that if upon my denying, in a public Manner, the infamous Inſinuation urged in the Piece ſigned Lex Talionis, the Author did not either make good his Charge, or offer me ſome public Apology, your Excellency would make me acquainted with him; adding, that you would not be concerned with any Party which would refuſe to do Juſtice, tho' the Gentlemen in the Proprietary Intereſt had never acted with the ſame Generoſity to yourſelf; for whenever they had rudely thrown any Dirt, they had never offered to wipe it off, even after they were convinced that it was unjuſtly applied.

I am led to repeat, in this particular Manner, the very Words which your Excellency uſed, upon being informed that ſome buſy Impertinents have taken the Liberty to aſſert, that your Excellency never made me ſuch a Promiſe. Of this your Excellency may very probably have been informed, as well as of the Inſolence with which I have been treated by the Printer of the Chronicle. I only mention theſe Circumſtances to convince your Excellency, that I am under a Neceſſity of urging a Performance of your Excellency's Engagement; and I cannot but flatter myſelf, that your Excellency will not heſitate a Moment to do this Juſtice to

Your moſt obedient humble Servant,

W. H.

To W H*s, Eſquire.

SIR,

YOU greatly miſapprehended me, if you underſtood that I engaged to acquaint you with the Name of the Author of Lex Talionis, in caſe he did not make you ſome Acknowledgment, on your denying the Charge you mention. I very well remember the whole of what paſſed between us on that Point, and to prevent further Miſtakes, I think it neceſſary to repeat it. On your complaining of the particular Hardſhip you were laid under by the Accuſation, I told you that, if it was falſe, you ought rather to rejoice than be diſpleaſed, as it would give you a better Opportunity of clearing your Character of what had been long reported to your Diſadvantage, than you would otherwiſe have had; and beſides be a Means of bringing a Diſgrace on thoſe who raiſed and propagated the Report. Then I adviſed you to do as I had always done on the like Occaſion, when I thought the Matter of Conſequence to my Reputation;---which was, to publiſh a few Lines under your Hand, declaring the Report was abſolutely falſe, and that you thereby called upon the Author or Authors either to make good the Charge, or to do you the Juſtice to acknowledge they had uſed you wrongfully. Upon this you ſaid, but ſuppoſe they ſhould, after all, refuſe to do me this Juſtice? Why you ſhould then look upon them, I anſwered, as I have always looked upon the Writers of the Proprietary Party, when they have acted in that Manner by me,---as a Pack of damned Scoundrels. You replied, that that was but poor Satisfaction, and you ſhould want ſome other, which you could not have, unleſs you knew who they were. I then ſaid, that I had not the leaſt Doubt but that they would readily do you Juſtice, if you publiſhed ſuch a Piece as I had before mentioned, tho', as one of the Proprietary Party, you had not ſtrictly a Right to it, they having never acted in that honourable Manner by thoſe they had unjuſtly accuſed. You ſaid you were of no Party; and I added, that if the Writers againſt you did not, in ſuch Caſe, make you an Acknowledgment, I ſhould think as bad of them as you could do, and ſhould have no Scruple, if it was to fall in my Way to know them, to tell you their Names; for that I could have no Friendſhip or Regard for any Sett of Men, that would refuſe doing Juſtice to a Perſon they had injured. This, I find, has been interpreted into a poſitive Engagement to acquaint you with the Name of the Author of Lex Talionis, if he ſhould refuſe to act in that honourable Manner; but the real Truth is as above ſtated. But ſuppoſing I had actually entered into ſuch an Engagement, you ſurely have not complied with the Terms on which it was to be fulfilled. Inſtead of publiſhing ſuch a ſhort Piece with your Name, as I recommended to you, nothing has appeared but an anonymous Performance, ſigned with the Letter H. This I take to be the Piece you read me a Part of, and to which Part I made ſeveral Objections, and adviſed you, by all Means, to confine yourſelf to a poſitive Denial of the principal Facts alledged againſt you; for that the Publication of ſuch a Piece as you read, would neceſſarily involve you in freſh Diſputes, which I thought you had beſt avoid, at leaſt till you got over the chief Matter. Had you followed my Advice, which was given with real Goodwill towards you, the whole Affair would probably, by this time, have blown over, and you obtained all the Satisfaction you could reaſonably deſire. For, from what I have heard of the Sentiments of the Gentlemen of the Old Ticket Party, they ſincerely wiſh you had publiſhed ſuch a Piece with your Name, that they might have had an Opportunity, if they could not ſupport the Charge, of contraſting their Conduct with that of the Proprietary Party on the like Occaſions. And if you will yet do it, in my Opinion, you will have no Reaſon to complain of their Injuſtice.

As to what has paſſed between you and the Printer of the Chronicle, I was ſorry to ſee it, and heartily wiſh, for your own Sake, that you had not unneceſſarily lugged him into the Quarrel.

I am, Sir,

Your moſt humble Servant,

Burlington, Friday --------. W. F.

P. S. I write in a great Hurry, having People on Buſineſs waiting in my Office, and ſome Interruptions have occaſioned my detaining your Servant longer than I could have wiſhed.

To His Ex--------y G------r Fn.

SIR,

I AM extremely unhappy to find myſelf under a Neceſſity of aſſuring your Excellency, that I am ſurpriſed beyond Meaſure at being told, that I muſt have miſapprehended you, when I underſtood that you engaged to give me the Name of the Author of Lex Talionis, if he refuſed to do me Juſtice. I have indeed not only underſtood this as a poſitive Engagement, but I have even publiſhed it as ſuch, and my Reputation muſt ſuffer greatly in the Opinion of my Friends, if I ſhould admit a Doubt that I might have been miſtaken. The Qualification which your Excellency is pleaſed to add to your Engagement is,----"that if the "Writers againſt me did not make me an Acknowledgment, "you ſhould think as bad of them as I could do, and ſhould "have no Scruple, if it was to fall in your Way to know them, to "tell me their Names." Though no Man upon Earth could rely with greater Safety upon his Recollection, and though I took the Precaution to commit to Paper all that paſſed in my Converſation with your Excellency; yet, Sir, if you may think proper to declare, in one Line, that you do not know the Author of Lex Talionis, I will never give your Excellency any further Trouble in this Matter,------ſo anxious am I to avoid thoſe Extremes to which I muſt inevitably be driven, if your Excellency ſhould perſiſt in refuſing to give me ſome Kind of Satisfaction.

I do very well remember, Sir, that you adviſed me to publiſh a Denial of the ſcandalous Falſhood, ſo baſely inſinuated in Mr. Goddard's Paper, and ſubſcribe it with my Name, as a Method which you had frequently uſed. My Anſwer to this was,----that your Excellency's exalted Rank gave you a Right to demand the Attention of the Public, in ſuch a Manner as would draw an Imputation of Arrogance upon one in my private Station. To this I added,----that, as my Name was not expreſly mentioned in the Charge, I could ſee no Reaſon why my Denial ſhould be more explicit. When your Excellency was pleaſed to favour me with your Advice, I did not imagine that you meant to dictate a temperate Form of Expoſtulation, from which I was by no Means to deviate. I could not conceive, that the higheſt Exertion of Chriſtian Humility could ſo far check the Feelings of Humanity, that a Man, injured as I was by the Author of Lex Talionis, ſhould have confined himſelf----"to the Publication of a few "Lines under his Hand, declaring the Report to be abſolutely "falſe, and calling upon the Author to do him Juſtice." Can your Excellency really think there is a Man now exiſting, ſo totally diveſted of Paſſion, that, when provoked and inſulted in the groſſeſt Manner, he ſhould calmly confine himſelf to the requeſting his abuſive Railer,----that he would endeavour to correct his Prejudices, from better Information, and not believe him ſo great a Villain as he had been repreſented? I appeal to your own Heart, Sir, when I aſk, whether this ſtoical Conduct could be expected from any Man of common Senſibility; and I dare even ſubmit the Propriety of my Vindication to the ſame Determination;----though your Excellency is pleaſed to obſerve, that the Publication of ſuch a Piece,----"would neceſſarily involve me in freſh Diſputes." I cannot eaſily comprehend how my endeavouring to obviate a villainous Charge, could draw me into freſh Diſputes; while I confined myſelf to a Denial of the infamous Inſinuation, and made uſe of but very few Words, to ſhew what dangerous Conſequences might follow this ſcandalous Licentiouſneſs of the Preſs. I did indeed take the Liberty to ſuppoſe, that this Attack was directed by the Malevolence of an offended Party,---a Party which your Excellency is pleaſed to ſay, "wiſhes I had pub"liſhed a proper Piece, with my Name, that they might have had "an Opportunity, if they could not ſupport their Charge, of con"traſting their Conduct with that of the Proprietary Party, upon "the like Occaſions." Surely, Sir, they have had a ſufficient Opportunity, if they had had the leaſt Inclination, to have ſhewn their Regard for Juſtice; and while they make theſe guarded Profeſſions, I cannot but conſider them as ſo many artful Evaſions. The Man whom they have injured is ſo minutely deſcribed, that the Injury could not poſſibly have fallen upon any one but the Perſon for whom it was deſigned. He has called upon them to make good their Charge, in a Manner as public and explicit as that in which they thought proper to urge it; and, while he finds that they are determined to ſhelter themſelves behind the infamous Publiſher of all their illiberal Abuſe, he cannot but make uſe of your Excellency's own Words, and declare,----"that they are a Pack of "damned Scoundrels." Your Excellency is pleaſed to ſay, that ----"I have unneceſſarily lugged the Printer into the Quar"rel." I beg Leave to differ from your Excellency, when I aver, that, ſo far from lugging him into the Diſpute, he very impertinently obtruded himſelf in ſuch a Manner as convinced me, that he was turned looſe upon me, to divert my Attention from thoſe, who did not chuſe to face that Reſentment which they ſo juſtly merited. To ſupport this Opinion, I need only refer to thoſe two inſolent Letters, which Mr. Goddard thought proper to ſend me, at a Time when he had received from me only three Lines, requeſting him to indulge me in an Opportunity of doing myſelf Juſtice through the Channel of his Paper.

I ſhall now only beg your Excellency's Pardon, for having already taken up ſo much of your Time in this tedious Detail. I do not, by any Means, expect, Sir, that you will take any further Notice of this incorrect Scrawl, than juſt to tell me, in as few Words as poſſible,----whether your Excellency will make me acquainted with the Author of Lex Talionis, or give me an Aſſurance, that he is not known to you. This your Excellency cannot conſider as a very unreaſonable Alternative, ſince every Moment, in which you continue ſilent, is a Declaration,----- "that it has not yet fallen in your Way to know the Author." The Politeneſs with which your Excellency has hitherto treated me, demands my grateful Acknowledgments; and I can, with great Sincerity, aſſure you, Sir, that whatever Determination you may think proper to make in this Affair, I ſhall, with great Reluctance, aſſume any other Character than that of

Your Excellenny's moſt obedient humble Servant,

Briſtol, Saturday Morning. W. H.

To W H*s, Eſquire.

SIR,

I AM now ſo hurried in writing my Letters to England, which are to go To-morrow from Philadelphia, that I have it not in my Power, if I thought it neceſſary, to give a particular Anſwer to your Letter of this Morning. Only thus much I muſt obſerve, that what I wrote you Yeſterday is ſtrictly true, and though it may not be all that paſſed between us in our Diſcourſe on that Point, yet I ſaid nothing any ways contradictory to it.---In about half an Hour after you left me, a Gentleman from Philadelphia called here, to whom I related the whole of our Converſation, while it was freſh in my Memory. And in a Day or two after, hearing it had been miſrepreſented at Philadelphia, I committed the Subſtance of it to Writing, and ſent it there. It was ſhewn to that Gentleman, as I underſtand, and I hear he has declared, that it was exactly agreeable to what I had before told him; and his Veracity will not be diſputed, I am ſure, by any Gentleman there, even of the oppoſite Party. You may remember that you told me you were a little hard of Hearing, and it is not impoſſible you may, on that Account, have miſapprehended ſome Things that were ſaid. But however that may be, moſt aſſuredly I could not have entered into ſuch an Engagement as that you mention; for I might as well have ſatisfied you at once whether I was or was not the Author myſelf, which you know I repeatedly refuſed to do, and told you that no Man, who had either a Connection with, or a Friendſhip for, a Sett of Gentlemen engaged in a Party, could give you that Satisfaction conſiſtent with Honour, and gave you my Reaſons.

As to your now requiring me "to make you acquainted with "the Author of Lex Talionis, or give you an Aſſurance that he "is not known to me," I am at a Loſs to conceive what Right you have to make ſuch a Requiſition to me, who are no ways intereſted in the Diſputes in Pennſylvania; and till you do ſhew me that you have ſuch a Right, I ſhall not gratify you with an Anſwer, though your Threats were as real as they are implied.

I am, Sir, your moſt humble Servant,

Burlington, Saturday Morning. W. F.

To His Ex-------y G-----r Fn.*

SIR,

AS to the Requiſition which I made to your Excellency, it was not founded upon any ſuppoſed Right of urging a Demand of this Nature. I only meant to ſupport it by a poſitive Engagement from your Excellency;---an Engagement which I have publiſhed, and which I ſhall ever be ready to maintain, at the Riſque of more than Life. If I could believe it poſſible that I had miſapprehended your Excellency, I ſhould certainly be very unhappy, upon finding myſelf under an indiſpenſible Neceſſity of making public what has already paſſed, as well as of declaring, that I ſhall conſider myſelf obliged to remind your Excellency of your Engagement, whenever I may have an Opportunity of meeting you out of your Province. This is a diſagreeable Conduct, which I ſhall conſider as my Duty to purſue, unleſs your Excellency may think proper to appoint ſome Time and Place where we may diſcuſs this Matter properly.---If theſe Meaſures may be cenſured as raſh and precipitate, be pleaſed, Sir, to conſider what Provocation I have had, and, at the ſame time, do me the Juſtice to believe, that a Senſe of Honour, without the leaſt Mixture of malicious Reſentment, influences the Behaviour of

Your Excellency's moſt obedient humble Servant,

Briſtol, Saturday Evening. W. H.

I am this Moment going off for Philadelphia, where I ſhall wait your Excellency's Commands till Tueſday next.

To W H*s, Eſquire.

SIR,

I HAVE this Moment received your Letter, in Reply to mine of this Morning; and have only to add, that whenever Pleaſure or Buſineſs may call me out of my Province, I ſhall not poſtpone going on Account of your Menaces, and that I am not at all concerned at any Thing you may have to ſay to me, when we may happen to meet.---I have in this whole Affair acted as honourable a Part by you, and given you as candid Advice, as I could have done to a Brother in ſuch Circumſtances: I can therefore have no Objection to your making my Conduct as public as you pleaſe, if you confine yourſelf to Truth.

I am, Sir, your humble Servant,

Meſſieurs HALL and SELLERS,

As the Legality of the Notes iſſued laſt Fall by Eight Houſes in this City, was the Subject of much Diſputation at that Time, you are deſired to publiſh in your Gazette the incloſed State of the Caſe, with the Opinions of the ATTORNEY and SOLLICITOR GENERAL, which are juſt received from London.

Philadelphia, May 5, 1767.

C A S E.

A NUMBER of the principal Merchants in the City of Philadelphia, conſiſting of Eight Houſes, whoſe Credit and Circumſtances are indiſputably good, being engaged in the Purchaſe of Wheat, and other Country Produce, for Exportation, finding a Scarcity of Caſh, and that Exchange had fallen, thro' the Neceſſity they were under of drawing Bills on England for large Sums, from 67 and a Half per Cent. to 50 per Cent. and apprehending a ſtill greater Fall of Exchange, agreed to iſſue a Number of their joint and ſeveral Promiſſory Notes, for Five Pounds each, amounting to Twenty Thouſand Pounds, Pennſylvania Currency, payable to the Bearers within Nine Months, with Intereſt at the Rate of Five per Cent. per Annum; which Notes, ſigned by all the ſaid Merchants, were equally divided between them, and by each occaſionally delivered, on their own proper Contracts, to thoſe who were willing to take them on the Credit of the Signers.

A Number of other Inhabitants of the City of Philadelphia, ſome from Diſappointment as to the Sinking of Exchange, and others from an Apprehenſion, that the Practice of iſſuing ſuch Notes may be prejudicial to Trade, and tend to depreciate the Paper Currency of the Country, have given an Oppoſition to the Circulation of the ſaid Notes, and have ſuggeſted, that the Iſſuing them was illegal.

The Queſtion of Illegality ariſes on the Statutes of 6 Geo. I. Chap. 18, extended to America, with ſome Additions, by 14 Geo. II. Chap. 37. Theſe two Statutes being conſidered, Quere 1. Whether the Signing and Iſſuing theſe Promiſſory Notes, in Manner aforeſaid, on the private Credit of the Signers, be any ſuch public Undertaking or Attempt, as can be brought within any of the particular Inſtances enumerated in either of the ſaid Statutes, or within any general Clauſe of the ſaid Statutes, ſo as to ſubject the Signers of the ſaid Notes to the Penalties thereof?

I am of Opinion, that the Iſſuing thoſe Promiſſory Notes is not one of the particular Grievances enumerated in the 6 Geo. I. and in the 14 Geo. II. and although there are very general Words in the former Statute, "all public Undertakings and Attempts, "tending to the Inconvenience of His Majeſty's Subjects, in their "Trade, and other lawful Affairs;" this does not appear to me to be "ſuch public Undertaking or Attempt," or to be ſubject to any of the Penalties of thoſe Laws.---If there was any Clauſe that might be conſtrued to affect thoſe Notes, I think it might be the 14 Geo. II. 37, Sect. 2, which makes them ſubject to immediate Payment; but as that Clauſe refers to the Undertakings before deſcribed, and unlawful Attempts, I ſhould not imagine that this Clauſe would be held to extend to them.

Quere 2. Whether theſe Notes, being payable to the Bearer, are recoverable under the Statute 3 and 4 Ann, Chap. 9, which has always been practiſed under, and admitted to extend to Pennſylvania?

Strictly no Act of Parliament extends to Colonies eſtabliſhed at the Time, unleſs there are Words in it for that Purpoſe, or ſome Act of Aſſembly has adopted it in a particular Province; but if the Proviſions of an Act of Parliament have been ſo received into Practice, as to make a Part of the Law of the Courts of Juſtice there, I think, in ſuch a Caſe as this, a Judgment conformable to ſuch Practice would not be reverſed in England; and if, in this Caſe, ſuch an Action as is given by 3 and 4 Ann ſhould be brought in Pennſylvania, and a Judgment given for the Plaintiff to recover upon ſuch a Note, I think ſuch Judgment would be affirmed, upon an Appeal.

February 13, 1767. Wm. de GREY.

I am of Opinion, that the Signing and Iſſuing of theſe Promiſſory Notes, on the private Credit of the Signers, is by no Means within the particular Inſtances mentioned in the Statute of 6 Geo. I. Chap. 12. or within the general Purview thereof, which ſpeaks of "ſeveral Projects and Attempts then ſet on Foot, "for raiſing Subſcriptions, and of private Perſons acting as Corpo-"rate Bodies, and making the Shares in Stocks ſo ſubſcribed to, tranſ-"ferrable, without any legal Authority, to the common Prejudice of "his Majeſty's Subjects, and the Detriment of Commerce." This Act was particularly aimed at the numberleſs Bubbles and Projects, invented about that Time to deceive the Multitude, and can have no Relation to a Scheme like the preſent, manifeſtly calculated for the Benefit of the Public, and without any Fraud on Individuals, who have thereby the Security of a Number of Merchants for the Payment of theſe Notes, inſtead of that of any ſingle Perſon. The 14th Geo. II. Chap. 37, extending the former Act to America, has Words in it which ſeem more applicable to the preſent Queſtion, but ſtill with a Reference to the former Act. I think therefore, that the Words, mentioning "Partnerſhips and Companies ſet on Foot in America, for raiſing "public Stocks or Banks, and unlawfully iſſuing large Quantities of "Notes or Bills there, contrary" to the true Intent and Meaning of the ſaid recited Act, can relate only to ſuch Schemes as were unlawful and unwarrantable, and contrived with a View to defraud, and to the Prejudice of Commerce; and cannot be extended to ſo laudable a Scheme as the preſent, calculated for the public Good, and for the Benefit of each Individual concerned in Trade.

Quere 2. Whether theſe Notes, being payable to the Bearer, are recoverable under the Statute 3 and 4 Ann, Chap. 9, which has always been practiſed under, and admitted to extend to Pennſylvania?

As I think theſe Notes, ſo iſſued, legal, and as the Act of 3 and 4 Ann, Chap. 9, has been admitted to extend to Pennſylvania, and has been accordingly practiſed under, I am of Opinion, that the Money due on ſuch Notes, is recoverable under the Statute of 3 and 4 Ann, Chap. 9.

BOSTON, April 27.

The following is a Copy of a Letter from his Grace the Duke of Richmond, to the Speaker of the late Houſe of Repreſentatives.

SIR, Whitehall, November 27, 1766.

THE Letter you did me the Honour to write to me on the 20th of June laſt, was ſent after me to Paris (where I was gone to take Leave of the Court) which prevented my receiving and acknowledging it ſooner.

Permit me now, Sir, to deſire you to take the firſt Opportunity of laying before the Houſe of Repreſentatives of the Province of Maſſachuſetts-Bay, the high Senſe I have of the Honour they have done me, in the Vote of Thanks which you tranſmitted to me. Such a Mark of their Approbation of my Conduct, in Relation to the Britiſh Colonies, is undoubtedly very flattering to me: For although I can claim no other Merit, than that of heartily concurring in the many and important Points that were ſo carefully attended to, and ſo determinedly carried through by the laſt Adminiſtration; yet it is a great Satisfaction to me to find that I was right in my Perſuaſion, that thoſe Meaſures would not only reſtore Tranquility to the Colonies, but alſo produce great Benefits to them, and Returns of Gratitude to the Mother Country. This Compliment to ſo inconſiderable an Aſſiſtant in thoſe Tranſactions as myſelf, is a Proof of the Diſpoſition of your Province to the latter; the firſt we have already ſeen to take Effect; and I truſt, from the Accounts that are already received, that the Advantages ariſing to America from the Acts paſſed laſt Seſſions of Parliament, will even be equal to the good Intentions of thoſe who planned them.

In whatever Station I may be in, it will always be my Wiſh to ſee the Proſperity of his Majeſty's American Dominions riſe to the greateſt Height, both on their Account, and becauſe of the Advantages that muſt neceſſarily reſult from thence to the Mother Country.

I cannot conclude, Sir, without begging of you to accept of my beſt Thanks, for the polite Manner in which you communicated to me this Vote. I am, Sir, with great Eſteem,

Your moſt obedient humble Servant,

RICHMOND.

By the February Packet a Letter has been received from Dennis De Berdt, Eſq; directed to the Speaker of the late Houſe of Repreſentatives, and dated the 14th of February laſt---As the Minds of many Perſons are diſturbed with Apprehenſions that the Miniſtry and the Parliament are diſpleaſed with the Repreſentations lately ſent Home by the Houſe, and that we are to be puniſhed with Troops to keep us in Order, we have obtained an Extract of the Letter, which we now publiſh for the Information and Comfort of the good People of the Province.

SIR,

"SINCE my receiving your judicious, pertinent and decent Repreſentation of the Difficulties your Trade laboured under, I have had ſeveral Conferences with Lord Shelburne on the Subject of it, who has been ſo obliging as to direct me to lay the Caſe before him, in Form of a Memorial, with which his own Secretary will attend me to the Board of Trade, and has promiſed his Intereſt to ſerve you; which Memorial now lays before his Lordſhip---The Reſtraints laid on the Fiſhery will be removed.

"The Government are about to call Home the Troops from America, and place others in their Room. The preparing for the Embarking of which has occaſioned much Speculation here, and the Report runs that there are freſh Troops going to America, which occaſioned my particular Application to Lord Shelburne on that Head, who was ſo condeſcending and obliging as to aſſure me, I might ſatisfy all my Friends that there was no Intention of augmenting the Forces in America, but a mere Exchange."---

Extract of a Letter from London, March 3, 1767.

"The late diſputes in New-York have again rouſed the revengeful ſpirit of your enemies, and have loſt the colonies ſome, till now, very ſtaunch friends, and who were moſt attached to their intereſts, Mr. C-----s T------d, &c.

"Lord Chatham was brought to town a few days ſince, exceſſive ill.---No public buſineſs has been done this winter for want of him: What a ſituation is this! The oppoſition to him is amazingly powerful."

We hear that JOHN WILLIAMS, Eſq; of this Place, now in London, is appoined Receiver-General of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms in North-America.----'Tis ſaid Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms are alſo ſhortly to be appointed, to reſide in America, and that CHARLES PAXTON, Eſq; is nominated as one of them.

Extract of a Letter from Surrinam, March 22, 1767.

"Yeſterday arrived here a Dutch Guineyman, and brings an Account that the French have taken ſome of our Factories on the Coaſt of Africa; but how true I cannot ſay, tho' it is currently reported and credited here."

To the PRINTERS.

THE Public may reſt aſſured, that there are authentic Accounts received by the laſt Packet, very favourable to the Colonies. The M------- have been pleaſed very kindly to receive the Repreſentations of our late Houſe, inſtead of ordering them burnt unopened, as was given out laſt Week, and induſtriouſly criculated by ------- and his Friends. The ſtrongeſt Aſſurances have alſo been given that all our Grievances ſhall be redreſſed, and the real procuring Cauſe of them ſpeedily removed. 'Tis certain that inflexible Patriot Lord Ch-th-m continues his noble Patronage of North-America, nothwithſtanding the infamous Inſults he is daily receiving from the inveterate Enemies of two Worlds, "for no other Crime" but that he has twice ſaved both from the Jaws of Perdition."

Mr. Fullerton has had 50 grand and great grand-children, 40 of which are now living.

Copy of a Letter, dated Amboy, April 24, 1767.

"Laſt Week was held our Supreme Court of Aſſizes, at which appeared all the Officers and Soldiers of the 28th Regiment, who lay under the Imputation of the Aſſault on Mr. Thomas Walker; but as no other Teſtimony was brought againſt them but the Depoſition of a Villain, who had lately been preſented by the Grand Jury of Canada for wilful and corrupt Perjury, they were all releaſed from their Recognizances."

The CHALYBEATE WATERS,

NEAR Gloucester, having acquired great esteem, and having been much frequented, many persons, who gave them a regular trial, have found very singular and salutary effects from them; it is expected, as the excellent virtues of these springs become more known, many will be desirous to be convenient, where they can have frequent and easy access to them, every morning and evening, which will be necessary, as the waters drank at the spring are found to be much the most efficacious. And as many were prevented from attending them regularly the last season, from the difficulty of getting good and convenient lodgings, the subscriber takes this method to inform the ladies and gentlemen, that he has taken a large convenient house in Gloucester, very pleasantly situate, with six good lodging rooms on the first floor, and will entertain those who are pleased to favour him, on very low and reasonable terms.

 Miss CHEER begs Leave to acquaint the Town, that, the Ceremony of waiting on Ladies and Gentlemen with Bills at Benefits, has been for some Years laid aside in this Company; instead of a Mark of Respect, which it was originally designed, it has been often, and not without Reason, taken in the Light of an importunate Sollicitation, equally painful to the Friends of the Theatre and the Performers. She, therefore, flatters herself, that this Circumstance alone, sufficiently points out the Impropriety of a personal Application.

The COLT HECTOR, full Blood,

WILL Cover this ſeaſon, at my ſtables in Cheſter; he is four years old, full fifteen hands high, a dark bay, with one white foot, and a ſtar in his forehead. He is accounted, by the beſt judges, to be the ſtrongeſt, beſt made colt of any of that ſtrain on the continent. He was got by ARIAL, whoſe dam was SELIMA, which was a daughter of the celebrated GODOLPHIN ARABIAN: Hector's dam was Colonel Taſker's SHADOW, got by SPARK, his grand dam imported from England, out of Lord Tankerville's Stud. He covers at One Guinea a leap and trial, or Two Guineas the ſeaſon. Any gentlemen ſending their mares may depend on the greateſt juſtice. Good paſture, at Three and Nine-pence per week, by me,

6 2M. DAVIS BEVAN.

WILL COVER THIS SEASON,

The BELLSIZE ARABIAN,

HE is a Horſe of ſuperior Form, in Size, Strength and Beauty, to any in America; and, from his genuine Blood as an ARAB, is better ſuited for getting Race-Horſes than any other blooded Horſe amongſt us; but beſides this Encouragement for the Gentlemen of the Turf, his Beauty, Strength and Carriage, renders him equally fitted for mixing his Blood with our Country Mares, either for the Saddle or Carriage, the Arabian Horſes being remarkable for ſtamping their Figure and other Qualities on their Stock. He was adverti'ed laſt Year more fully, but as he has been ſeen, and greatly admired, by the beſt Judges from different Parts of the Continent, it is now thought unneceſſary to ſay more. He is kept by JOHN WING, near the Sign of King George, in Arch-ſtreet, and will cover at Four Guineas a Mare, and a Dollar to the Groom; the Money to be paid when the Mare is covered, or when taken from Paſture; the ſaid John Wing will take proper Care of all Mares that are ſent to him, and has procured good and ſecure Paſtures for them at a moderate Rate. 6 M.

PHILADELPHIA: Printed by DAVID HALL, and WILLIAM SELLERS, at the NEW PRINTING-OFFICE, near the Market.

May 14, 1767. NUMB. 2003.

The PENNSYLVANIA GAZETTE.

Containing the Freſheſt Advices, Foreign and Domeſtic.

LONDON, February 20.

WE hear that the affairs of the Eaſt-India company with the miniſtry are (notwithſtanding all contrary reports) in the ſame unſettled ſituation as ever; and that as yet no man in the kingdom, one very high perſonage excepted, is acquainted with the Earl of C----'s views on the company.

A new plan for taxing America is ſaid to be adopted by the miniſtry.

Feb. 27. We hear that this morning the Right Hon. the Earl of Strathmore will be married to Miſs Bowes, of Durham, the greateſt heireſs in Europe; her preſent fortune is one million, and 40,000 l. beſides a large jointure on the death of her mother, and a large eſtate on the demiſe of an uncle.

Paramaribo, the capital of Surrinam, is one of the fineſt towns in all America, and is a place of no defence: Fort Zeandia, which is near it, was built by the Engliſh, when in poſſeſſion of that country. The Dutch are ſo much afraid of the Engliſh taking Surrinam from them, that they will not ſuffer any gold or ſilver mines to be opened.

It is ſaid that a ſpirited memorial has been ſent over to Holland, in relation to the barbarous treatment which a Britiſh ſubject lately received on board a Dutch man of war.

March 2. Letters from Poland, of the 6th of February, ſay, that a report prevails there, that 40,000 Ruſſian troops more are to arrive, as ſoon as the ſeaſon will permit, in that kingdom, and that the Poles are preparing to oppoſe them.

The houſe of commons ſat very late on Friday night, and was engaged upon buſineſs of ſuch conſequence, that the houſe was ordered to be cleared of all perſons who were not members.

As much has been lately ſaid concerning the province of Surrinam, belonging to the Dutch, in America, we have inſerted the following brief account of its ſituation, &c. It lies in ſix degrees north of the line, and is certainly a very rich and fertile country; it is bounded to the north by the river Oronooke, and to the ſouth by the river Amazone; the Dutch yearly load about 80 large ſhips with its produce, being ſugar, coffee, cotton, drugs, wood, &c. The Dutch eſteem Surrinam of the greateſt conſequence. It is almoſt as large as the kingdom of France.

Extract of a letter from Rome, Jan. 5.

---"It is talked here, that the King of Spain is taken up in carrying on a vigorous proceſs, not only againſt the Jeſuits, but alſo againſt the Jeſuitical Court of Rome; that he has aſſembled a number of Divines, and other proper perſons, to conſider whether he might not lawfully prohibit all applications to Rome for diſpenſations, &c. and appropriate the whole management and deciſion of ſuch matters to his own biſhops: That this queſtion being determined in the affirmative, he hath cauſed a book to be written and printed in the Spaniſh language, for a ſtanding proof and defence of his conduct on this occaſion; and being reſolved to ſatisfy others, as well as his own people, of the ſolidity of thoſe reaſons which have prevailed upon him to do this, he has ordered that book to be tranſlated into Italian, whereby it will become more public to the world, and be read by thoſe whom it may more particularly concern, and by the generality, at leaſt, of the more ſouthern parts of Europe."

Extract of a letter from Cheſter, Feb. 25.

"Yeſterday morning, about 3 o'clock, I was greatly alarmed by the cry of fire, and the tolling of the fire bell; when I aroſe out of my bed, which was not far from where the fire happened, the moſt ſhocking ſight preſented itſelf to me; the workhouſe, in which all the poor of 11 pariſhes lived, to the amount of 200 boys and girls, beſides men and women, was entirely burnt to the ground, together with upwards of 60 children, and about 12 men, and 5 women, in all 77; the reſt were ſaved. It was about 2 o'clock in the morning when the fire broke out, but it was ſuppoſed to have been burning all night; as about 20 children lie in one room, it is ſuppoſed they by ſome accident ſet fire to ſome cotton which the children ſpin, and which was owing to the negligence of one woman, by letting them go to bed by themſelves. It is impoſſible to expreſs the horror and diſtreſs the poor people were in, ſome of them running out naked, others jumping out of the windows, and from the top of the building: In ſhort, it was the moſt ſhocking ſight that ever was ſeen. There are now upwards of 30 men employed in digging out the bones and dead bodies, but there are none found as yet, and it is ſuppoſed they are all burnt to aſhes.

Feb. 28. The forces ſo much talked of to go to America, are only to relieve the ſeveral regiments that have been there for ſome years.

March 3. Among other changes in the adminiſtration talked of, are,

The Duke of Grafton, and Lord Gower, to be Secretaries of ſtate.

The Right Hon. C. Townſend to be firſt Lord of the Treaſury.

The Marquis of Rockingham to be Lord Chamberlain.

Lord Mansfield to be Lord Preſident of the Council.

The Hon. Mr. Yorke to be Chancellor.

It has been remarked, that the ſeveral adminiſtrations for forty years paſt, always carried their point in reſpect to the land-tax.

Letters received over land from the Eaſt Indies mention, that a Portugueſe junk had been taken by a crew of black pirates, near the ſtrait of Babelmandel.

Yeſterday ſeveral of the heads of the preſent Adminiſtration had a long conference with the Right Hon. the Earl of Chatham, at his houſe in Bond-ſtreet.

It is reported that the Dutch merchants of Surrinam, in conjunction with the French, are endeavouring all in their power to ruin the coaſt and main trade of the Muſqueto ſhore, and that even the foreign trade, carried on from the Leeward iſlands, has ſuffered conſiderably on the ſame account.

Yeſterday morning ſeveral of the nobility, and great officers of ſtate, paid Lord Chatham a viſit. His lordſhip, contrary to all expectation, is almoſt recovered from the gout, than which no news can be more pleaſing to every real lover of his country.

On Friday a motion was made to reduce the land tax to 3s. in the pound, and carried by a majority in favour thereof.

It is ſaid by the knowing ones, that the betts are 206 to 188, that a great Earl will be obliged to reſign.

They write from Liſbon, that the Prime Miniſter of Portugal continues to ſtand out againſt all the remonſtrances of the Hon. Mr. Hay, his Majeſty's Envoy, for aboliſhing certain late erected Monopolies, extremely prejudicial to the Britiſh commerce in that kingdom.

By Captain RANKIN, arrived here, in a ſhort Paſſage, from Dublin; and Captain BARNARD, arrived at New-York, in 36 Days from London, we have the following Advices, viz.

CONSTANTINOPLE, January 15.

THE 7th inſt. a little before midnight, a Turkiſh man of war of 64 guns, lying at anchor in the harbour near Topana, ready to ſail, with another of the ſame force, for the Archipelago, was ſet on fire by a pan of coals being put in a room by ſome of the people to warm them, who fell aſleep. The fire had made ſuch a progreſs while they ſlept, that the people deſpairing to extinguiſh it, and fearing it ſhould be communicated to the other ſhip, cut the cables. The wind blowing freſh, drove her to a Key called Capani, where ſhe ſet fire to five Saicks (large veſſels that trade to the Black Sea) two of which were laden with corn. They were all puſhed off from the ſhore, and ſeparated in the harbour. One of them immediately ſet fire to three other Saicks, which lay at another Key; two of them were drove to a place called Giubali, and ſet fire to the houſes on the Conſtantinople ſide of the harbour, 80 of which were entirely conſumed. Several veſſels which lay along ſhore were ſoon reduced to aſhes. Had it not been for the dexterity of the ſlaves of the Bagnio, who ſunk one of the veſſels while ſhe was on fire, and driving near 18 large men of war, which lay moored together before the arſenal, the whole of them muſt inevitably have been conſumed. The Grand Signior, the Grand Vizir, and all the great officers of the Porte, were upon the water, giving their orders. The human mind cannot picture to itſelf a more ſtriking and horrid ſcene, than to ſee, at the ſame time, nine large floating fires, in the middle of the night, with two great fires on each ſide of the water, which threatened deſtruction to the whole city. The Grand Signior, who is bleſſed with an heart of charity and benevolence, has given orders to make up the loſſes of the unhappy ſufferers by water. The ſame night the Sultana was delivered of a Prince, which was made known on Saturday, by the firing of the guns from the Seraglio and the Arſenal, which continued morning, noon, and evening.

LONDON.

March 7. It is now reported, that the Earl of Briſtol will go Ambaſſador to Portugal, in the room of William Henry Lyttleton, Eſq; and that the Duke of Northumberland will be again appointed Lord Lieutenant of Ireland.

According to ſome private letters from Genoa, the Republick, wearied out with maintaining an expenſive war againſt Corſica, had been induced to liſten to certain propoſitions from the court of Verſailles, which it was thought would terminate in the entire ceſſion of that iſland to the French King.

It is ſaid the following alterations will ſpeedily take place in the miniſtry: Lord Barrington to be Chancellor of the Exchequer, in the room of C. Townſhend, Eſq; who reſigns. Hans Stanley, Eſq; Secretary of State, in the room of Mr. Conway, who returns to the army. T. Townſhend, Eſq; jun. to be cofferer, in the room of Mr. Stanley. George Onſlow, Eſq; to be Secretary of War, in the room of Lord Barrington. C. Townſhend, Eſq; of Yarmouth, and Roſe Fuller, Eſq; to ſucceed Mr. Onſlow and Mr. T. Townſhend in the Treaſury. And Lord Liſburne to ſucceed Mr. C. Townſhend at the Admiralty. And that the Earl of Briſtol will not go to Ireland.

It is ſaid, in order to carry his plan of operations into execution with the greater effect, that the E. of C. will be appointed firſt Lord of the Treaſury. Others again ſay, that he will reſign in a few days.

The miſunderſtanding between our court and that of Liſbon, is far from being adjuſted; and it is expected Mr. Hay, our miniſter there, will ſpeedily be recalled.

This day the Right Hon. Charles Townſhend reſigned his place of Chancellor of the Exchequer.

Lord Barrington and Lord North, are talked of to ſucceed the Right Hon. Charles Townſhend, as Chancellor of the Exchequer.

They write from Paris, that advice had been received there of great diſputes among the three orders of the ſtates of Britany, but that the particulars of thoſe diſputes were too long to be enumerated.

Thurſday there was a great Board of Admiralty, when, it is ſaid, ſeveral more ſhips were put into commiſſion for immediate ſervice.

The ſettling the late peace was a long while retarded, by the French refuſing to pay the money due to the Engliſh for the maintainance of the French priſoners, and the peace was the moſt deſirable thing in France; yet the King obſtinately refuſed the payment of our demands. The Duke de Choiſeul (prime miniſter) tho' drove to his ne plus ultra to furniſh means to carry on the war, yet nevertheleſs could not prevail on his Majeſty, till by a lucky expedient he made him ſenſible he was at that preſent time, and as long as he ſhould delay the peace, loſing immenſe ſums of money. "France, cries the Duke, will immediately ſee the happy effects of it; our manufactures (at preſent drooping) will once more flouriſh, our ports will be crouded with Engliſh veſſels to take our wares, and our capital and provinces will be over-run with Engliſh, whoſe folly and extravagance alone, in 12 months, will more than enable us to make good the paltry ſum now demanded."---The King ſaw the rectitude of his advice, and acquieſced. And the Engliſh, by their behaviour, have proved the Duke was no falſe prophet.

March 14. On Thurſday night ſome diſpatches, which are ſaid to be of importance, were ſent away from the Secretary's office, for the Earl of Stormont, his Majeſty's Ambaſſador at the Court of Vienna.

Extract of a private letter from Madrid, Feb. 27, 1767.

"The diſcontents here grow apace, on account of a late proclamation revoking the pardon granted to the rioters who drove from hence the Royal Favourite [Squilace] whoſe adminiſtration was ſo diſguſtful to the people; and as this ferment is, more or leſs, univerſal in all the provinces belonging to the kingdom, it is hard to ſay what may be the conſequences of this ill-adviſed reſcindation. The murmurs of the people, too, are not a little ſtimulated at the diſmembring from the Spaniſh Crown ſome of their moſt valuable plantations, in favour of the French, whoſe prevailing influence at Court is far from being agreeable to the patriot part of the nation."

March 17. Saturday laſt a foreigner of diſtinction arrived in town from Holland; and it is rumoured at the weſt end of the town, that he is a Corſican agent, charged with ſome important diſpatches to our court.

March 18. This day being the anniverſary of the repeal of the American ſtamp-act, we hear that many of the real friends of this kingdom, and of the colonies, intend to commemorate the ſame.

Yeſterday there was a great Board of Treaſury, and afterwards a Board of Trade, at which ſeveral of the colony Agents attended.

We hear it has already been diſcovered, that the effects, &c. of a certain merchant, will pay his creditors near, if not full, 20s. in the pound.

March 19. Yeſterday the levee at St. James's was very numerous, and afterwards a Cabinet Council was held, at which moſt of the great officers of ſtate, and many of the Privy Council, aſſiſted.

We hear that the Right Hon. the Earl of Chatham, had yeſterday a return of the gout.

March 20. It is ſaid William Poultney, Eſq; formerly William Johnſtone, Eſq; of Solway Bank, will ſoon be created a Britiſh Peer, by the title of Lord Bath.

In a letter lately ſent by Lord Clive to his father, we are informed, his Lordſhip acquainted him, that he had been upwards of 700 miles up the country, to the capital of the Great Mogul, who had not only conferred on him the title of Omrah, but ſhewed him more diſtinguiſhed marks of his favour than to any other perſon whatever. His Lordſhip alſo ſays, that he has the pleaſure to acquaint him, that he had acquired a revenue to the Eaſt-India company of four millions ſterling per annum.

We are informed, that the Liſbon mail, which arrived on Tueſday, has brought ſome agreeable advices to the Portugueſe merchants of this city, in reſpect to their commerce with that kingdom.

The laſt Amſterdam Gazette, under London, March 3, ſays, We are aſſured, that by virtue of a treaty on the point of concluſion between this Crown and the Empire of Morocco, the Engliſh are permitted, among other privileges, to form a ſettlement near the Promontory, adjacent to Cape Verd, on the coaſt of Africa.

Tueſday laſt 30 tranſports were taken up by the government, in order, it is ſaid, to carry troops to North-America.

March 21. It is ſaid that Sir Edward Hawke, and ſome more of the Lords Commiſſioners of the Admiralty, will ſet out early this ſummer to make the ſurvey of all the men of war at Portſmouth and Plymouth; together with the marine arſenals and royal dock-yards.

The poor throughout the Highlands of Scotland are ſtarving for the want of oat bread.

There is a great talk, that numbers of rich merchants, and others, propoſe to lend eight millions, at three per cent. to have the liberty of free trade to the Eaſt-Indies, for as much yearly as they pay, which doubtleſs will be a benefit to the ſubſcribers, but the company of courſe muſt ſuffer as much as the free traders get, therefore the directors will probably oppoſe ſuch a propoſal's taking place.

Sir Jeffery Amherſt, Knight of the Bath, is ſoon to be married to Miſs Cary, daughter of Major-general Cary, and niece to Lord Falkland.

The ſtruggle between the Inns and the Outs, continues as violent as ever, but muſt be finally determined in a few days; both parties having aſſiduouſly called in all their forces, in order to decide the diſpute.

'Tis now ſaid the Earl of B---- [not the Earl of Bute] is reſolved to have no further connections with this adminiſtration, and that the Marquis of R----m has given a poſitive refuſal to recent application for his Lordſhip to join them on his own terms.

All the regiments on the Britiſh and Iriſh eſtabliſhments are to have the number of each regiment marked on their buttons. The French army have long ſince followed this, and find it uſeful.

It is ſaid the whole army, and even the militia, will have white waiſtcoats and breeches.

The late failure of a great merchant, was occaſioned by his having diſburſed ſeveral large ſums on a corn contract with Italy, which he had agreed to ſupply, to the amount of 100,000 l. with American wheat. The ſtipulated cargoes are now on the ſeas; and ſhould this adventure turn out well, as is rather probable, he will have a very conſiderable ſurplus, after the full payment of his creditors, if not, they will be great ſufferers.

They write from Cadiz, that ten battalions of Spaniſh infantry and marines were daily expected there, to be embarked on board ſeveral men of war, frigates, and bomb-ketches, and it was ſaid their deſtination was for the coaſt of Barbary.

We are told there is no new tax in agitation, as the future compromiſe with the Eaſt-India company will fully anſwer all the exigencies of ſtate.

The repeal of the cambrick act is entirely laid aſide; and it is even ſaid that a total prohibition will take place.

It is ſaid a tax of twenty ſhillings a year will be levied upon all livery ſervants in Great-Britain.

March 23. Yeſterday morning about three o'clock died, of the bruiſes he received by a fall from his horſe, the moſt Hon. Francis Ruſſel, Marquis of Taviſtock, only ſon of his Grace the Duke of Bedford, member of Parliament for the county of Bedford, and Colonel of the Bedfordſhire militia. His Lordſhip was born in October 1739.

On Monday Lord Chatham had a long conference with the King at the Queen's palace.

If we may credit ſome accounts, our trade with Portugal is not likely ever to be ſo conſiderable as heretofore; not owing, as has been repreſented, ſo much to the averſion of the Portugueſe to the Engliſh, as to their being able to furniſh themſelves with the manufactures they formerly took from us. Some few years ſince, one houſe in the city of London was ſaid to furniſh Portugal annually with hats, to the amount of between ſeven and eight thouſand pounds, which branch of trade is now almoſt entirely loſt, the Portugueſe having ſince eſtabliſhed manufactories of their own, whereby they are enabled to ſupply themſelves at a cheaper rate, than when they imported that article of commerce from foreign countries.

According to private letters from Madrid, a treaty was on foot with the court of Verſailles, for ceding back the iſland of Hiſpaniola to his Catholic Majeſty, in lieu of which a certain tract of territory on the continent of South-America was to be delivered up to the French.

CHARLESTOWN (SOUTH-CAROLINA) April 13.

Thurſday laſt arrived here his Majeſty's Packet Boat Grantham, commanded by Captain James Bull, in 13 Days from Penſacola; who informs us, that Brigadier General Haldiman, Commander in Chief of his Majeſty's Forces in the Southern Diſtrict of North-America, arrived there the 25th paſt, in his Majeſty's Ship Cygnet, commanded by Philip Durell, Eſq; from Jamaica; and that the Cygnet, which is appointed for this Station, before ſhe comes here, is to go to the Havannah, where the Active Frigate had received ſome Inſult.

Captain Dawſon, who arrived here laſt Friday, from the Bay of Honduras, informs, that he left 70 Sail of Engliſh Veſſels in that Bay, and 18 more were daily expected from Jamaica; that the Spaniards had lately begun to diſturb the Logwood Cutters, by burning the Houſes, killing the Cattle, and carrying off the Negroes of the oldeſt Settlers in the Rio Honda, which, as no Man of War was there, might poſſibly produce ſome further Diſturbances, the Engliſh Sailors being extremely exaſperated at theſe Proceedings.

April 14. Our late Intelligences from the Cherokee Country are, that the Northern Tribes had formed a large Encampment on the Back of North-Carolina, from whence they frequently diſpatched ſcalping Parties againſt the Cherokees; but that Salloue, or the young Warrior of Eſtatoe, had collected a numerous Body of the beſt Markſmen from all the Towns, to go againſt them, in order to deſtroy their Encampment, and prevent any further Incurſions from that Quarter.---It is further ſaid, that, after ſtrict Enquiry, the Cherokees had no hand in killing Mr. Boyd; nor were there any of the Virginia Traders murdered, as was reported.

BOSTON, May 4.

We hear from Hartford, in Connecticut, that on the 16th Inſtant, Doctor William Jepſon, formerly of this Town, performed the Operation of Lithotomy, on one Mr. Bradley, of Tolland, a Man of 40 Years old, and extracted from him a very rough Stone, weighing two Ounces and three Quarters; and on the 25th he performed the like Operation on one James Talmedge, of New-Haven, a Boy 10 Years of Age, from whom he extracted a Stone, weighing very near one Ounce, both of whom are now in a fair Way of recovering, having the moſt favourable Symptoms.

From the BOSTON GAZETTE.

Meſſieurs EDES and GILL,

Pleaſe to inſert the following.

THE reſtleſs and infatuated Enemies of Great-Britain and her Colonies, have been inceſſantly endeavouring to make the Miniſtry, the Parliament, and the whole People of England, believe that we are ungrateful, factious, diſloyal: This is not a bare Surmize, but is warranted by Letters from Gentlemen of the beſt Character on t'other Side the Water. At the ſame time they are taking Pains to abate our Eſteem and Affection for our Brethren in England, by repreſenting them to us, as unkindly diſpoſed towards us. Thus they have played a double Game; and by ſtriving to fix a mutual Jealouſy between us, have done all in their Power to deſtroy that mutual Harmony, which every Man of every Order ought, and every Friend to both Countries will cultivate. Surely theſe Men have much to anſwer for: What worſe Treaſon can there be, next to an Attempt upon the Life or Crown of the King, than to aim at poſſeſſing the Minds of His Majeſty's Miniſters, and, through them, of His Majeſty himſelf, with "unfavourable Sentiments" of his moſt loyal and loving Subjects! What greater Crime againſt the State, than to be perpetually uſing baſe Arts and Calumny, to lay a Foundation of Diſcord, ſo big with Evil to the Mother Country and her Colonies! That the People of this Province, and we may venture to ſay, of all our Siſter Colonies, are diſpoſed to yield the moſt chearful Obedience to every conſtitutional Act of Great-Britain, has been notorious for many Years paſt.----We defy the Tories on this and that Side the Atlantick to prove the contrary.---- It is as notorious, that an unconſtitutional Act, or in other Words, an Act of "mere Power," fits as awkardly upon them as upon their Fellow-ſubjects in Britain---If Liberty is invaded either here or there, we hope there will be always Spirit enough at leaſt to complain of it---If our Charter Rights are infringed, we cannot be "tame Spectators" of it, any more than our Brethren would be of a Breach of Magna Charta---We muſt and will keep our Attention to the Conſtitution, as long as it is worth attending to, and every honeſt and ſenſible Man in England will juſtify and applaud us---Knaves and Fools are not worth regarding---Be it known then, that all honeſt and ſenſible Subjects in Britain and America are united---they agree as one Man, to ſupport the Crown and Dignity of His moſt ſacred Majeſty, and the Authority and Rights of Parliament, and of General Aſſembly, upon the well known and eſtabliſhed Principles of the Britiſh Conſtitution---they agree to cultivate Harmony between all His Majeſty's Subjects, in every Part of the Globe, upon the Footing of Liberty and true Friendſhip---This Crown and Dignity, this Authority, theſe Rights, this Liberty and Friendſhip, they will maintain at the Expence of every thing dear and valuable, even their Blood---This is the truly noble Spirit that now prevails, and whoever ſhall go about, either by open Attempts, or ſecret Machinations, to deſtroy, or even in the leaſt Degree to check ſuch a Spirit, let him be accurſed, and all the People ſhall ſay Amen.

NEW-YORK, May 7.

Saturday laſt ended the April term of the Supreme Court of this colony, during which the following perſons had their trials, viz. William Richards, Charles Hunt, Elizabeth Clark, Sarah Peters, Sarah Gilbert, and Pompey, a Negroe, all indicted for grand larceny; guilty, and burnt in the hand: John Dowers, and Elizabeth his wife, for a riot and aſſault, guilty, and fined Three Pounds each. Samuel Smith, for a cheat, found guilty, and fined Five Pounds. David Smith and his wife were both indicted for burglary, found not guilty: But ordered by the court to be delivered to the Sheriff of Pennſylvania, being charged with divers felonies committed there.----Several others were indicted for larceny, and other crimes, but acquitted.

Laſt Tueſday Captain Malony arrived here in 8 weeks from Cadiz, by whom we learn, that there is not the leaſt appearance of any attack making by the Spaniards on Gibraltar, but that a quiet friendly intercourſe continued as uſual between the Spaniards and that garriſon: On the 16th of April he ſpoke with a brig from South-Carolina, bound for St. Kitts, but the wind blowing freſh, did not learn the maſter's name:---The 19th, in lat. 28, ſaw a ſhip ſtanding E. N. E. but could not ſpeak to her.---He ſays the gale of wind laſt Monday morning was very violent off the coaſt, but happily he had ſea-room ſufficient for the time it laſted.

Extract of a letter from London, dated March 21, 1767.

"We have had ſeveral meetings about paper currency, both among ourſelves as a committee for that purpoſe, and with the ſeveral agents of the provinces, and, in my opinion, inſtead of getting forward, we rather have the retrogade proſpect, and I doubt there will be no act for a currency this year, as a legal tender. As to American buſineſs, I obſerve, thro' the whole, great languor and dejection, every one looks on his concern thither with a heavy heart; what will be the iſſue time muſt divulge."

Laſt Wedneſday Night a Houſe, back of Mr. Jonathan Hampton's, in Chapel-ſtreet, and facing Scotch-ſtreet, in this City, the Property of ſaid Mr. Hampton, was broke open, and robbed of Caſh, to the Amount of upwards of 30 l. and ſundry Papers of Conſequence.

To be SOLD in Virginia by the subscriber, and may be entered upon next fall,

A VALUABLE tract of land, containing near 30,000 acres, lying upon both sides of James river, at the falls thereof, and extending many miles as well below as above the said falls, including the landing at Westham, whereon warehouses are erected that receive the produce of the back country, brought down the river in canoes to that place, in order to be afterwards shipped off from Shockoes.

The high land on the said tract is rich, level, and well wooded, the low grounds are extremely fine, and much more valuable than any of the kind on the river; on either side of the said river there are places fit for erecting furnaces, forges, and mill works of any sort whatever, with inexhaustible streams of water. The situations on the said lands are both healthy and delightful, having on them some of the finest views on the continent.

There are various and valuable improvements on the said land, viz. on the north side of the said river is a well built town, called Shockoes, tenanted out to merchants and others, with two setts of public warehouses for the inspection of tobacco; the whole is in good repair, and the greatest part lately built; on the south side of the said river there is a well built town, called Rockey Ridge; the houses and warehouses, chiefly in the tenure and occupation of merchants, also a sett of public ware-houses for the inspection of tobacco, and adjoining the said town is Stagland forge, a large strong new well built forge, with two hammers, and every thing compleat, on a never failing stream; likewise a new well built merchant grist mill, with two pair of stones, and a boulting mill, all in exceeding good order. Over and above those improvements, there are many very fine plantations on the said lands, with good houses, and every convenience, for cropping. Likewise several good dwelling-houses, particularly one known by the name of Belvidere, a beautiful seat, with offices, coach-house, stables, garden, orchard, &c. fit for the accommodation of a genteel family, also a valuable ferry from Shockoes to Rockey Ridge, and a profitable fishery on both sides the river, worth upwards of 200l. yearly. The vast advantages resulting to trade from the happy situation of the said estate, are too many to be enumerated; and as the produce of the vast extent of the colony above the falls, and also part of North-Carolina, must necessarily be brought to one or other of the said towns, it may justly be said they are the center of the trade of this province.

The whole will be sold together, or laid off in lots, as may best suit the buyer and seller. Tbctf. WILLIAM BYRD.

The COLT HECTOR, full Blood,

WILL Cover this ſeaſon, at my ſtables in Cheſter; he is four years old, full fifteen hands high, a dark bay, with one white foot, and a ſtar in his forehead. He is accounted, by the beſt judges, to be the ſtrongeſt, beſt made colt of any of that ſtrain on the continent. He was got by ARIAL, whoſe dam was SELIMA, which was a daughter of the celebrated GODOLPHIN ARABIAN: Hector's dam was Colonel Taſker's SHADOW, got by SPARK, his grand dam imported from England out of Lord Tankerville's Stud. He covers at One Guinea a leap and trial, or Two Guineas the ſeaſon. Any gentlemen ſending their mares may depend on the greateſt juſtice. Good paſture, at Three and Nine-pence per week, by me,

6 2M. DAVIS BEVAN.

WILL COVER THIS SEASON,
The BELLSIZE ARABIAN,

HE is a Horſe of ſuperior Form, in Size, Strength and Beauty, to any in America; and, from his genuine Blood as an ARAB, is better ſuited for getting Race-Horſes than any other blooded Horſe amongſt us; but beſides this Encouragement for the Gentlemen of the Turf, his Beauty, Strength and Carriage, renders him equally fitted for mixing his Blood with our Country Mares, either for the Saddle or Carriage, the Arabian Horſes being remarkable for ſtamping their Figure and other Qualities on their Stock. He was adverтiſed laſt Year more fully, but as he has been ſeen, and greatly admired, by the beſt Judges from different Parts of the Continent, it is now thought unneceſſary to ſay more. He is kept by JOHN WING, near the Sign of King George, in Arch-ſtreet, and will cover at Four Guineas a Mare, and a Dollar to the Groom; the Money to be paid when the Mare is covered, or when taken from Paſture; the ſaid John Wing will take proper Care of all Mares that are ſent to him, and has procured good and ſecure Paſtures for them, at a moderate Rate. 6 M.

The PENNSYLVANIA GAZETTE.

Containing the Freſheſt Advices, Foreign and Domeſtic.

To the PRINTERS of the PENNSYLVANIA GAZETTE.

I OBSERVED a Propoſition in your Papers of the 26th of March laſt, for making Hard Soap from Pot-aſh, by one WILLIAM FROBISHER; but as every one that is acquainted with the Nature of thoſe lixivious Salts, well know that Lyes made of that, are of equal Quality with thoſe drawn from Aſhes; conſequently as good Hard Soap may be made from Pot-aſh as by the common Method; therefore if Frobiſher would propoſe a Method, whereby America would be able to ſupply England with a ſufficient Quantity for the ſeveral Manufactories, and the Soap Boilers likewiſe be furniſhed with it, at a Price that their Lyes, made from that, would be no more coſtly than thoſe they draw from Aſhes, then his Propoſition would anſwer the Intention. And with reſpect to his Term of reducing Pot-aſh to a fixed Standard, I apprehend he is much a Stranger to the Nature of thoſe lixivious Salts; for if the terraqueous Particles are wholly extracted, they then are pure; but the Gentlemen in that Branch are greatly at a Loſs, for want of a true Knowledge of the real Properties of their Lyes; and as a Demonſtration of my Aſſertion, I ſhall inſert an Experiment I lately made, viz. I took a Veſſel, which contained 11.99147 Cubic Inches, and filled it with ſtrong Lyes, and the Weight was 6 Ounces, 19 Penny Weights, 24 Grains; and after Evaporation I had 14 Penny Weights, 20 Grains; and then chymically extracting the Earth, I had only 2 Penny Weights, 14 Grains, of pure Salts; from whence it is evident, that what the Pot-aſh Gentlemen call Salts, is more properly a ſaline Earth, and inſtead of ſeparating thoſe two Bodies, they proceed in this erroneous Method to render them fluent together, not knowing they have two oppoſite Powers to deal with, the one fluent, the other not; therefore, before they can produce a pure Pot-aſh, theſe two Principles muſt be ſeparated, and then thoſe pure lixivious Salts will produce an elegant Pot-aſh, and flux with a moderate Fire.

BERLIN, February 18.

PRINCE Dolgoroucki, Miniſter from the Empreſs of Ruſſia at this Court, hath publiſhed a writing, intituled, "An Expoſition of the Rights of the Proteſtants, and of thoſe of the Powers intereſted to maintain them."

Warſaw, Feb. 4. The Ruſſian troops continue to occupy nearly the ſame quarters; they are not chargeable to the inhabitants; and General Count de Soltikow cauſes ſtrict diſcipline to be obſerved among them.

Conſtantinople, Jan. 6. It is aſſured that the Porte has made peace with the Georgians, upon condition that they ſhall yearly bring 20 fine female ſlaves to the ſeraglio, either Georgians or others; but that the Ottoman officers ſhall not have it in their power to refuſe or exchange any of them.

Venice, Feb. 13. A letter from Cairo, in Egypt, brings advice, that a rich merchant of that city had procured Letter-Founders and Printers from England, at his own expence; by which means he had eſtabliſhed a Printing-Houſe, in which he printed an excellent work upon the properties, culture, and commerce of coffee; and that they are preparing to print an elegant edition of the Alcoran, with comments by Aben-Arum.

Paris, Feb. 23. Several letters from Italy adviſe, that the Jeſuits in Spain export large quantities of ſilver from Cadiz to Genoa, and thence to London, from the confidence they have in the Court of England.

Feb. 24. The Dauphineſs is extremely weak, and on Saturday received the ſacraments.

Warſaw, Feb. 12. By letters from the frontiers we are informed, that great numbers of recruits are raiſing in the ſtates of the Empreſs Queen, and in thoſe of his Pruſſian Majeſty. The King hath created Count de Bruhl Inſpector of the new foundery of cannon.

Vienna, Feb. 21. The reigning Prince of Anhalt-Zerbtz, brother of the Empreſs of Ruſſia, and Lieutenant-General of the Auſtrian army, having repeatedly deſired to reſign his military employments, their Imperial Majeſties have with regret conſented to it. The motive of this Prince's reſignation is not known. The regiment of Cuiraſſiers, of which he was Colonel, is given to the Count de Podſdatſky, General of horſe.

Geneva, Feb. 18. The critical ſituation of affairs here is ſtill the ſame; but the emigration is not ſo conſiderable as it has been: Nevertheleſs our trade and credit is affected more and more by the diſſenſion that prevails between the Magiſtrates and the greateſt part of the Citizens.

Madrid, Feb. 12. It is aſſured, that Spain and the Empire of Morocco have concluded a treaty of union offenſive, againſt the Regency of Algiers. The Emperor of Morocco, at the head of a numerous army, which the King of Spain will maintain at his own expence, will march, it is ſaid, to Algiers, while 22 Spaniſh ſhips of the line, with 22 xebecks, and two bomb-veſſels of the ſame nation, will block up and bombard the port thereof. It is believed, that orders relative to this important enterprize are already ſent to Ferrol, and to all the Spaniſh colonies in Africa.

Legborn, Feb. 11. According to letters from Tunis, of the 10th of January laſt, it is highly probable that the peace between the Regency there and the Grand Dutchy will ſoon be concluded; the Bey having conſented to an article, by virtue of which his Corſairs will be obliged to keep at the diſtance of ten miles from the coaſts of Tuſcany.

The ſame letters mention the arrival there of an Emiſſary from Paſcal Paoli, named Paciola, formerly a Lieutenant in the Genoeſe troops, and charged with a commiſſion for negotiating a treaty of peace between the Bey and the malecontents of Corſica. If this negotiation ſhould meet with ſucceſs, it would be a great diſadvantage to the ſubjects of ſome Italian ſtates; becauſe the Tuniſian Corſairs will find, upon occaſion, an aſylum in many ports of the ſame iſland.

LONDON.

Feb. 28. It is ſaid that our Miniſter to a certain Republic will ſoon be recalled.

The affairs of Geneva are, we hear, compromiſed to the ſatisfaction of all the parties concerned.

Private letters from Liſbon mention that Count D'Oyeras, the Portugueze Premier, has at length declared his earneſt deſire of the arrival of Mr. Littleton, that all the differences between the two crowns might be ſpeedily and amicably ſettled.

Extract of a letter from Breſt, dated Feb. 12.

"A man of war and a frigate are arming here, of which M. de Brugnon is to have the command. This officer, it is ſaid, hath orders to ſail to Sallee, to make propoſals of peace to the Emperor of Morocco; but if they are rejected, a more conſiderable force will ſoon be ſent towards the ports of that Barbarian Prince."

They write from Genoa, that the Senate had received intelligence, that the malecontents of Corſica had actually made preparations for inveſting ſeveral ſtrong holds occupied by the troops of the Republick, both by ſea and land.

They write from Berlin, that the Corſican agent lately arrived there, had ſet out for the Hague, without its being publickly known what had been the ſucceſs of his negotiation.

March 3. We hear, the laſt letters from Copenhagen bring an account of the pregnancy of her Majeſty the Queen of Denmark.

March 5. A circular letter of the King of Pruſſia has juſt appeared at Berlin, by which his Majeſty declares, "That having been informed that many perſons are deſirous of retiring from Switzerland into the Province of Cleves, to rent farms, and eſtabliſh manufactures there, he therefore ordains, that without any regard to the religion they profeſs, they ſhall be well received and protected, and furniſhed with lodging, and all things proper for what they may undertake, relative to their eſtabliſhment in the ſaid Province."

LONDON, March 5.

If the foreign prints tell truth, that the Genoese are constantly building ships of war for the French; and the French themselves, under pretence of being called in by the Genoese, to preserve their sovereignty over the island of Corsica, have cut down the timber on that island proper for building men of war, and constantly transported it from thence to Marseilles, or Toulon, and may continue to do so; where is the danger, impropriety, or injustice, for Britain to take these islanders under her protection, and prevent thereby the like evils for the future? The navies of France and Spain are daily increasing. The consequence is to be dreaded. If we have sixty or seventy sail of line of battle ships, they have more; the manning of them must be left to events, in themselves uncertain.

"Last week a terrible accident happened at a colliery, near Fatfield, in this county. The pits were 80 fathom deep; and on Friday morning last, when all the hands were below at work, it went off with a great explosion, by which 39 persons lost their lives. Most of their bodies are got up, but in such a mangled manner as would shock any body: They have an uncommon stench, and some of their bones were crushed as if pounded in a mortar, yet had the skin not broke in any place. The owners are giving 20l. premium per man; and so great is the necessity of the poor, and the tempting bait, they are already nearly supplied. It is remarkable that the same colliery blew up between 30 and 40 years ago; by which about 80 persons were killed."

We are even assured from good hands, that the court of Petersbourg has set forth the motive for sending them, in a declaration lately sent to Warsaw on this subject. These forces are to support the confederacy which the dissidents are going to form. It is to be presumed that the other side will not sleep; and therefore we are apprehensive that the public tranquillity is going to be disturbed in Poland and Lithuania, unless some concessions are made by both parties.

It having been mentioned in one of the morning papers, that orders are sent to Sir Henry Moore, Governor of New-York, not to permit the meeting of the future congress, said to be intended to be held in that city next May; we are desired to inform the public, that no advice, received from any part of America, makes the least mention of any such intended congress; and that there is the greatest reason to believe that the report thereof is entirely without foundation, and an imposition on the public.

Extract of a letter from a gentleman in London to his friend in Boston, that came in Captain Freeman.

SIR,

"I have now the pleasure to assure you that the ministry are well satisfied with your late conduct. Your province was yesterday spoken of in the House of Commons with great respect, and your conduct commended. They will attend to no altercations of old affairs. I advised you, as one of the committee, that Malcom's affair was not adopted by the government, nor do I believe it has left any bad impressions on their minds. I advised the Speaker of the reception of the house's representation of their grievances, which was pertinent, decent and modest, and am in hopes of good effects from it. The sending votes of thanks to the several persons who appeared in your favour on the late repeal, was a well judged measure, and doubtless was of service to your intereft here. You do me justice in believing me to be a friend to America, and to Liberty. That darling favourite, and important cause, will ever lay near the heart of your real friend and humble servant."

IN the Pennsylvania Chronicle, Number 17, the Publisher has made a great Mistake, in asserting that the young Woman that was found drowned in the River Christiana, had, for some time, been under a melancholy Turn of Mind. The Delusion she was under was the very opposite Extreme. Had that Publisher reserved the Room in his Paper that this, and the other following melancholy Piece of Intelligence has taken, for some of the "entertaining and instructive Pieces, which have appeared in "his Chronicle, and which a Correspondent of his tells him, "has given greater Satisfaction, than the common Articles of "Intelligence which are inserted in all the other News Papers," he would have discovered himself to have been a Person of more Prudence, as well as Humanity and Tenderness, to the already afflicted and distressed Relations and Friends of the deceased Persons. Extract of a Letter from London, March 14, 1767.

"Nothing material hath happened lately, unless that the Land Tax hath been lowered to Three Shillings, which the Opposition carried against the Ministry, contrary to their Expectations. This Measure, however, is far from popular; for any Reduction of Taxes, till we have cleared some Millions of Debt, which is yet unfunded, or indeed till we have made some Progress in clearing some Part of our enormous Debt in general, is by no Means the Thing. The Ministry remain as they were, and some say the Differences between them and Lord Chatham are accommodated.---How far this is true, I cannot determine.---Charles Townshend still keeps his Place, nor have any Changes been made for some Time past.----Upon the whole, there is no judging, by Appearances, of the Stability of the Ministry; they may remain all this Winter as they are, and they may be all turned Topsy-turvey before next Packet.----The East-India Company's Affair remains also still unsettled, but comes soon before the House again.----Lord Chatham's long Absence at Bath, hath much retarded that Affair, and many others too, of almost equal Importance."

Extract of a Letter from Captain Cobourn, of the Ship Hannah, of this Port, dated Leghorn, March 5, 1767.

"I am just arrived here after an excessive bad Passage. On the Second of January we met with the hardest Gale of Wind that I ever was in, which lasted four Days, and blew so violent, that our Ship was under Water all the while, and obliged us to keep both Pumps going, till we were all as raw as if we had been skinned; but the Water still gained on us, till we had nine Feet in her Hold, so that we were forced to cut away, and throw overboard, every thing we could, in order to save our Lives as long as possible on the Wreck. However, it pleased God to abate the Gale, and we, being overjoyed to see good Weather again, the Ship still having the same Depth of Water in the Hold, fell heartily to pumping, tho' almost dead, and were seven Days before we could clear and fit her, so as to make any Sail. Upon the whole, our Ship is a mere Wreck."---This is thought to be the Vessel Captain Lambton met with in Distress, mentioned in this Paper the 30*th ult.*

WILL COVER THIS SEASON,

The BELLSIZE ARABIAN,

HE is a Horſe of ſuperior Form, in Size, Strength and Beauty, to any in America; and, from his genuine Blood as an ARAB, is better ſuited for getting Race-Horſes than any other blooded Horſe amongſt us; but beſides this Encouragement for the Gentlemen of the Turf, his Beauty, Strength and Carriage, renders him equally fitted for mixing his Blood with our Country Mares, either for the Saddle or Carriage, the Arabian Horſes being remarkable for ſtamping their Figure and other Qualities on their Stock. He was adverтiſed laſt Year more fully, but as he has been ſeen, and greatly admired, by the beſt Judges from different Parts of the Continent, it is now thought unneceſſary to ſay more. He is kept by JOHN WING, near the Sign of King George, in Arch-ſtreet, and will cover at Four Guineas a Mare, and a Dollar to the Groom; the Money to be paid when the Mare is covered, or when taken from Paſture; the ſaid John Wing will take proper Care of all Mares that are ſent to him, and has procured good and ſecure Paſtures for them, at a moderate Rate. 6 M.

The COLT HECTOR, full Blood,

WILL Cover this ſeaſon, at my ſtables in Cheſter; he is four years old, full fifteen hands high, a dark bay, with one white foot, and a ſtar in his forehead. He is accounted, by the beſt judges, to be the ſtrongeſt, beſt made colt of any of that ſtrain on the continent. He was got by ARIAL, whoſe dam was SELIMA, which was a daughter of the celebrated GODOLPHIN ARABIAN: Hector's dam was Colonel Taſker's SHADOW, got by SPARK, his grand dam imported from England, out of Lord Tankerville's Stud. He covers at One Guinea a leap and trial, or Two Guineas the ſeaſon. Any gentlemen ſending their mares may depend on the greateſt juſtice. Good paſture, at Three and Nine-pence per week, by me,

Extract of a Letter from a Merchant in London, dated March 14, 1767.

"THE Merchants having waited on the Miniſtry with a Paper, expreſſing their Sentiments that a Paper Currency in America would be advantageous to both Countries, the ſame was referred to the Board of Trade for their Opinion. The Board, it ſeems, are clearly and ſtrongly againſt it; and, to convince and convert the Merchants to the ſame Opinion, have ſent them down an Extract of their Report in 1764, which was read at their Meeting laſt Week, and ſeemed to make ſome Impreſſion. They deſired Dr. B. F. however, to furniſh them with his Sentiments upon it in Writing, that if it ſhould appear practicable, they might defend the Opinion they had given. Accordingly, on Wedneſday laſt, at another Meeting, he gave them ſome Remarks upon it, a Copy of which I ſend you, together with a Copy of the Report. Several of the Merchants expreſſed their Satisfaction with the Remarks as a full Anſwer, but were to conſider them farther among themſelves, and are to meet again on Tueſday next. There is, however, ſuch a general Clamour at preſent, and ſo much Ill-humour, againſt America, that I doubt very much our Succeſs in getting the Reſtraint taken off, if the Merchants here do not make it their own Cauſe.

"The Miniſtry have been puſhed hard in Parliament lately, and it has been thought by many that they muſt fall. Since Lord Chatham's Return to Town, it is ſaid they are better connected and confirmed."

Extract of a Repreſentation from the Board of Trade to his Majeſty, dated 9th of February, 1764.

THE bad Effect and pernicious Operation of the legal Tender, annexed to Paper Bills of Credit, are univerſally admitted, and have been ſeverely felt in moſt of your Majeſty's American Colonies; and to ſhew the Senſe of the Merchants of the principal Cities of Great-Britain upon the Subject, we beg Leave to ſubjoin their Memorials, No. 1, 2, 3, 4, complaining of the Loſſes they have ſuſtained, and the Confuſion that has ariſen, from the Introduction of this impolitic, as well as fraudulent Syſtem, into the Colonies of Virginia and North-Carolina.

We are not ſufficiently informed to ſay, with Certainty, in what Manner, and from what Cauſes, this abſurd and deſtructive Notion, of converting Paper Bills of Credit into legal Currency, firſt took its Riſe, not being in Poſſeſſion of the ancient Records of the Colony of the Maſſachuſetts-Bay, where we apprehend it firſt begun; but we conceive, that between the Years 1689 and 1692, that Colony, growing neceſſitous, from the Expences incurred chiefly on Account of Sir William Phipps's Expedition againſt Canada, borrowed Money, in a Method of which we are not particularly apprized, upon ſuch Security, and under ſuch Terms and Conditions, that the Notes or Bills given for the ſame carried with them ſuch a Degree of Credit, that they paſſed in Dealings and Tranſactions with as little Difficulty as Bank Bills do now in this Kingdom.

The firſt obvious Effect of theſe Notes, thus from their Credit paſſing in Payment, was the Exportation of almoſt all the Gold and Silver in the Province; and the Neceſſities of the Government at the ſame time increaſing, without a Poſſibility of finding Funds to give ſufficient Securities for the Principal and Intereſt of Money to be borrowed, ſoon made it neceſſary for the Aſſembly to turn their Thoughts to ſome new Method of anſwering the public Exigences; and the beforementioned Notes being in Part paid off, after having occaſioned the Exportation of moſt of the Gold and Silver, the apparent Want of a Medium of Trade and Commerce, furniſhed a further Pretence for a new Scheme of Paper Credit; and that this is no uncertain Concluſion will evidently appear, from the firſt Act of the General Court of Maſſachuſetts-Bay, that we are in Poſſeſſion of; which Act, reciting the extreme Scarcity of Money, and Want of other Medium of Commerce, gives an additional Advantage to a new Emiſſion of Paper Bills of Credit, by directing that they ſhould paſs, and be received in all public Payments, at the Advance, and after the Rate of Five per Cent. which additional Advantage the General Court was probably induced to give, from an Apprehenſion that, without ſuch Advantages, theſe new Bills would not carry ſufficient Credit to make them paſs, ſo as to anſwer the general Purpoſes of Trade and Government.

This Expedient, we preſume, had its Effect for ſome Years, for we do not find any Depreciation of theſe Bills of Credit from their original nominal Value of One Hundred and Thirty-ſix Pounds for One Hundred Pounds Sterling, till the Year 1705, when One Hundred Pounds Sterling, became worth One Hundred and Forty Pounds Currency; from which Time they continued, at every new Emiſſion, gradually to depreciate, until the Year 1711, when One Hundred Pounds Sterling, became worth One Hundred and Fifty Pounds Currency; Diſputes then ariſing, between Debtors and Creditors, upon taking theſe Bills in Payment for Debts contracted before the Depreciation, the General Court thought fit to enact, that theſe Paper Bills ſhould be a legal Tender in all Payments till the Year 1715; and we find afterwards, that the ſame Regulation was continued to the Year 1730.

The palpable Fraud of this Regulation in 1711, is ſo glaring, that it is impoſſible to ſuppoſe, that the General Court was not ſenſible of it; for by this Law every Creditor who had lent his Money before the Depreciation, was defrauded of the whole Difference, and as every new Emiſſion was conſtantly followed by Depreciation, the Fraud was increaſed to ſuch a Degree, that many fair Creditors, and other Perſons not in Debt, loſt Half or Three Fourths of what was due to them, and of their perſonal Eſtate.

The Grievance at length became ſo enormous in this, and in the other Colonies upon the Continent of America, almoſt all of which had followed the Example of the Province of the Maſſachuſetts-Bay, in iſſuing Paper Bills of Credit, and making them legal Tender, though upon different Principles, and under different Regulations; and this Practice had ſo pernicious an Operation, not only within the Colonies themſelves, but alſo upon their Commerce and Dealings with this Kingdom, that the Houſe of Commons thought proper in the Years 1739 and 1740, to take up the Conſideration of the dangerous State of Public Credit in the Colonies, and to interpoſe, in order to ſtop thoſe Abuſes, which the Crown had in vain endeavoured to check by its own Authority: And on the 14th of April 1740, upon full Conſideration thereof, they unanimouſly reſolved, That the creating Paper Bills of Credit, and declaring them to be legal Tender in all Payments, had been a great Diſcouragement to the Commerce of this Kingdom, by occaſioning a Confuſion in Dealings, and a Leſſening of Credit in thoſe Parts; and that the Inſtructions, given by the Crown to the ſeveral Governors, not to aſſent to any Acts for making ſuch Bills of Credit, without Clauſes ſuſpending their Execution, until the Crown's Pleaſure could be known, ought to be enforced and duly obſerved.

Theſe Reſolutions, however, in which the Senſe of one Branch of the Legiſlature was ſo clearly and fully expreſſed, had not the Effect to reſtrain this deſtructive Practice; and the Quantity of this Paper Currency having been greatly increaſed, on Account of the real or pretended Exigency of the Service, during the War with France and Spain; the Miſchiefs of it were ſeverely felt, as well by the Merchants of Great-Britain, as by the Colonies themſelves, and occaſioned another Parliamentary Enquiry, which produced the Act paſſed in the 24th of his late Majeſty, for reſtraining ſuch Paper Bills of Credit in the New-England Governments; but we beg Leave to obſerve to your Majeſty, that the Limitation of this Act to theſe Governments did not ariſe from any Opinion which our Predeceſſors in Office, who ſupported this Bill, had entertained; that the Reaſonings and Principle, upon which it was founded, were not equally applicable to the other Colonies, but from an Unwillingneſs in Parliament to involve thoſe Colonies, whoſe Conduct had not been complained of, in a Meaſure that, at the ſame time that it reſtrained, was intended as a juſt Cenſure of the Conduct of thoſe to which it was applied; for that Board of Trade, which upon many other Occaſions, as well as in this Inſtance, has very eminently diſtinguiſhed itſelf, appears to have had the cleareſt Conviction, that this Meaſure of declaring Paper Bills of Credit to be a legal Tender, was falſe in its Principles, unjuſt in its Foundation, and manifeſtly fraudulent in its Operation.

What we ſhall humbly propoſe to your Majeſty, is founded upon the ſame Principles, which appear to have been the Rule of the Conduct of that Board; and our Intention is not to convey Cenſure upon any particular Colony, but to ſuggeſt a general Regulation, upon a full Conviction that it is neceſſary, as well for the Security and Intereſt of the Colonies themſelves, as of the Trade and Commerce of this Kingdom.

It is not neceſſary for us to enter into many Arguments to evince, that the Practice of making Paper Bills of Credit a legal Tender is abſurd, unjuſt and impolitic, being ſupported in this Opinion by the Experience of its Effect in every Colony, where it has been practiſed to any great Degree, by the Sufferings and Loſſes of the Merchants trading to America, by the Opinion of our ableſt Predeceſſors at this Board, by the Reſolutions of the Houſe of Commons, and the Orders of the Crown thereupon, by the Senſe of the whole Legiſlature, expreſſed in the Act of the 24th of the late King, and by the beneficial Effect of that Act in the Colonies to which it was applied, more particularly in the Province of Maſſachuſetts-Bay, where, though by the extenſive Operation of the War in North-America, they were obliged to make greater Efforts, in every Reſpect, than was ever required in any former War; yet, ſuch was the State of public Credit under the Effect of this Law, that larger Supplies were raiſed, and with more Satisfaction and Facility, than was ever known before.

It would otherwiſe not be very difficult to ſhew, that a Medium of Trade muſt, in its Nature, not only be a Meaſure of the Value, but an Equivalent; and that, in a Country which has any foreign Trade, the Equivalent muſt be of a Material which is univerſal, and of intrinſic Value, which Paper Bills of Credit, created in any particular Country, never can be; that different Countries muſt agree upon the Material for this Meaſure and Equivalent, which they have tacitly done in Favour of Gold and Silver, but never will, or did, or can do ſo with regard to Paper; that Gold or Silver are the Materials fitteſt for this Meaſure and Equivalent, for ſeveral Reaſons, too long to enumerate, and that Paper is perhaps as unfit as any Thing can poſſibly be; all which would be enough to evince the Abſurdity of this Meaſure.

If we were to enter into a Diſcuſſion of the Fraud and Injuſtice of it, we ſhould find it only neceſſary to refer to the Effects of the Depreciations in the ſeveral Colonies, where Debtors have been enabled to pay their Debts with Three or Four Shillings in the Pound, merely by Majorities of Men under that Deſcription in the Aſſemblies, making new and large Emiſſions of Paper Bills: For theſe Bills have but one Property in common with real Money, which is, that the larger the Quantity, the leſs the Value with regard to other Commodities; and this perhaps may ariſe from the Quantity affecting the Credit, as in the other Caſe the Quantity overſtocks the Market. Thus it would eaſily be made to appear, that Fraud and Injuſtice are, and muſt be the Attendants upon this Practice.

And as nothing can be conſonant with true Policy that is abſurd and unjuſt, that Conſideration would be ſufficient to ſhew, that this ſtrange and deceitful Syſtem is impolitic: But when, added to this, we conſider, that ſuch a Paper Currency, in a commercial Country, baniſhes the the real Medium of Trade, Gold or Silver, and that ſuch a Country is paid in Paper, and pays, and muſt pay, either in Gold or Silver, or its other valuable commodities, we humbly preſume the Art of Man cannot contrive any Meaſure more ruinous and deſtructive to the unhappy Country where it is allowed to take Place.

It will, we truſt, appear to your Majeſty, from what has been ſaid, that the Practice, which at preſent prevails in thoſe Colonies, not included in the Act of the 24th of his late Majeſty, of iſſuing Paper Bills of Credit, upon Pretence either of diſcharging public Debts, defraying public Services, or eſtabliſhing a Medium of Commerce, which Bills bear no Intereſt, are in ſome Caſes redeemable at very diſtant Periods, and in other Caſes have no Fund at all for their Redemption, and the compelling Perſons by Law to receive theſe Bills at an arbitrary, artificial and nominal Value, is of the moſt pernicious Nature, deſtructive of public Credit, ruinous to the Colonies themſelves, and highly injurious to the Commerce of this Country; and that the Complaints lately made by the Merchants of the principal trading Cities in Great-Britain, of the Prejudice which they have ſuſtained from this Practice, do call for that Redreſs from Parliament, which, as we have before obſerved, the Crown has in vain endeavoured to obtain for them by its own Authority.

It has been urged upon this Occaſion, that the Complaints of this Practice are merely confined to Virginia and Carolina, and that in the middle Colonies Faith has been preſerved, and no Inconvenience has been found to attend this Practice; but on the contrary, that it has produced very beneficial Conſequences: This, however, will, we humbly conceive, appear upon Examination not to be founded upon Fact; for though the Credit of the Bills in theſe Provinces has been better ſupported than the Credit of thoſe of other Colonies, yet they have never kept to their nominal Value in Circulation, and have conſtantly depreciated to a certain Degree, whenever the Quantity has been increaſed; but if the Fact could be admitted as it is ſtated, yet it would be no Argument in Favour of a Practice in its Nature founded in Fraud and Injuſtice, which are ſtamped upon the Bills themſelves, by compelling all Perſons to receive that as lawful Money, which has no real intrinſic Value in itſelf.

It is this Circumſtance of declaring thoſe Bills to be a legal Tender, which, we humbly conceive, conſtitutes all the Fraud and Abuſe attendant upon this Practice, and that, if this was not allowed, the Colonies, whenever they ſhould find it neceſſary to make uſe of their public Credit, would be conſtrained to do it in a juſt and equitable Manner; and therefore we humbly ſubmit to your Majeſty, whether it may not be adviſeable to move in Parliament for a Bill to enact ------

By Captain DYSART, in a ſhort Paſſage from Londonderry, we have the following Advices, viz.

N A P L E S, February 24.

AN Earthquake happened here this morning, which threw down ſeveral houſes, and damaged ſome others. It is ſuppoſed to have been occaſioned by a ſudden eruption of Mount Veſuvius. The whole city is in the utmoſt conſternation; the diverſions of the Carnival are ſuſpended; and public prayers are offered up to implore the aſſiſtance of Heaven.

Conſtantinople, Feb. 3. The troubles in the neighbourhood of Smyrna in Aſia, are now entirely appeaſed.

Civita Vecchia, March 1. The Corſicans intend to continue the war with vigour againſt the Genoeſe, as ſoon as the French troops are withdrawn; and Councils are frequently held at Genoa, to conſult upon the proper meaſures to be taken to reſiſt the force of General Paoli, after the departure of the French.

Sileſia, March 7. They talk here variouſly of the ſituation of affairs in Poland. Some ſay, that means will be found out to terminate them amicably, and that for this purpoſe a new Diet will be held. Others pretend, that a war between Ruſſia and Poland is inevitable, and that if the former has not already declared, ſhe will do it ſoon. In order to abridge this war, Ruſſia, it is ſaid, will employ directly an army of an hundred thouſand men. As yet we do not perceive that the court of Vienna has any deſign to enter into this affair. It remains to know, whether circumſtances may render its neutrality neceſſary. The great tranquility which is obſerved in all the Roman Catholic courts, ſeems to give us to underſtand, that the event alone will determine them. If unhappily other Powers ſhould interfere, the war may become more general than was at firſt imagined.

Leghorn, Feb. 28. A letter has been received here from a Corſican at Micinaggio, of which the following is an extract.

"Our Commander, after having taken all neceſſary meaſures for ſtriking a blow, cauſed to ſail from this port, in the night between the 16th and 17th, fourteen veſſels, feluccas, and armed boats, having on board 300 men, together with ammunition and proviſion. Two hours before day our people made a ſucceſsful landing on the iſland of Capraja, which is ſituated over againſt the coaſt of Tuſcany, and belonged to the Genoeſe: And about an hour after the ſun was up, found themſelves maſters of almoſt all the coaſts of the iſland, having met with no reſiſtance from the inhabitants, fifty of whom joined the Corſicans. In the evening of the ſame day our men obtained poſſeſſion of the tower of Barbigia; in the morning of the 19th they took that of Genobito, and at ſeven in the evening entered the tower of the port; ſo that the Genoeſe have only one fortreſs remaining, ſituated on an eminence, but ill provided with neceſſaries for a defence. They have indeed 14 pieces of cannon, 36, 27, and 15 pounders; but, on the other hand, the garriſon conſiſts only of 36 ſoldiers, who have no proviſion, except 23 ſacks of flour, and a little wood; whereas the beſiegers have every thing in plenty. It is therefore ſuppoſed we ſhall ſoon be maſters of the place, eſpecially as the enemy's artillery is ill managed. We found in the two towers 4 pieces of braſs cannon, a 14, 12, an 8, and a 6 pounder."

Genoa, March 7. The Republic having been informed that 600 of the Corſican malecontents had landed on the iſland of Capraja, immediately diſpatched thither a pink, and two large feluccas, with troops and proviſions; but theſe veſſels not being able to approach the port, at the entrance of which the malecontents had placed ſeveral pieces of ordnance, the government have ſince ſent out, under the command of the Senator Pinelly, three gallies, four pinks, and five feluccas. It is probable that the Corſicans muſt retire, unleſs they very ſoon receive aſſiſtance.

Warſaw, March 14. The day before yeſterday, at three in the morning, a fire broke out in a Secretary's apartment in the King's palace, and, in two hours time, deſtroyed one entire wing; in which, amongſt other people, were lodged a part of his Majeſty's own family. No lives are as yet known to be loſt by this accident, but the damage is very conſiderable; and it is ſaid, that papers of great importance to the Republick are deſtroyed.

L O N D O N.

March 19. Yeſterday the Committee of Oporto Merchants waited on the Earl of Clare, to thank him for the great attention and diſpatch given by his Lordſhip in the report of the Honourable Board of Trade on the Portugal affairs.

According to letters from Turin, the King of Sardinia had cauſed it to be intimated to Paſchal Paoli, that in caſe of that General entering into any league with the regency of Barbary, not only his Majeſty, but the other Italian States, would be obliged effectually to oppoſe a deſign ſo repugnant to their commercial intereſts.

March 21. A letter from Genoa, dated February 7, ſays, "A report prevails here, that the Courts of Verſailles and London have ſignified to the Senate, that it appears to them that the Republick would do well to cede to the malecontents of Corſica the places which ſhe ſtill poſſeſſes there, reſerving in exchange an annual tribute to be paid by the iſlanders, and that they, the ſaid Courts, were ready to give their guaranty to this arrangement; but that the Senate have made anſwer, that they cannot think of embracing ſuch an expedient."

From the variety of buſineſs that remains to be done, it is generally believed the parliament will not riſe till the end of June.

March 24. They write from Warſaw, that numbers of couriers are perpetually paſſing and repaſſing from that Court, and frequent councils held, but the ſubject of them is kept ſo much a ſecret, and the whole managed with ſuch an air of myſtery, as greatly excites the attention of the public, though they are utterly at a loſs to gueſs at the object of them.

Private letters from the Hague mention, that Commodore Sels, who had laſt ſummer concluded a treaty of peace between the Republic and Dey of Algiers, would be charged this year with negotiating a treaty of the like nature, with the regency of Tunis, and Emperor of Morocco.

Some letters from Leghorn mention, that his Sardinian Majeſty had offered his mediation to reconcile the preſent differences between the Republic of Genoa and the Corſicans, by a partition treaty, in which both powers ſhould be conſidered as free and independent of each other.

March 26. We hear a certain great Perſon, in a very few days, will make known the long expected plan of operations for this year, which, for the boldneſs and extenſiveneſs of its ſcope, we are informed, will alarm and aſtoniſh all Europe.

We are told that a great man was heard to ſay laſt Sunday at St. James's, that he would rather be a General of the Corſicans, than the firſt Potentate in Europe.

March 28. Laſt night a council was held at the Earl of Northington's houſe, in Lincoln's Inn Fields; at which the Duke of Grafton, and ſeveral other Lords of the Privy-Council, aſſiſted.

Wedneſday died at his houſe near St. James's, the Hon. Philip Ludwell, Eſq; one of his Majeſty's Council of the province of Virginia.

We hear a ſcheme has been communicated by a great man in the adminiſtration, for raiſing a large annual revenue by certain regulations in the African trade.

Advice is ſaid to be received, that a large number of troops of his Sardinian Majeſty were preparing to embark for the iſland of Corſica, when the laſt letters came from Leghorn.

It is ſaid a bounty of forty ſhillings per ton, will be granted on ſhips fitted out from the American colonies, for carrying on a whale fiſhery in Hudſon's bay, as is now paid on ſhips ſent to Greenland.

March 31. Tranſlation of a paragraph of a letter from Liſbon, dated March 5, 1767.---"I informed you ſome time ago of the departure of the French Envoy, Monſ. de St. Prie, at the inſtigation of our Prime Miniſter; I muſt now acquaint you that the Dutch Reſident is preparing to return to Holland for a like motive. You will perhaps ſay that the Conde is no more a friend to theſe nations than to England, and I agree with you; but ſtill you muſt allow that human nature is too liable to be impoſed on by whatever promiſes advantage, not to liſten to what is thought to have that tendency. All paſt adminiſtrations in England, with regard to Portugal, have always acted upon like principles; and they have overlooked the loſs of what has been taken from them, in hopes of preſerving what remained; yet have ſtill continued to perform all that was demanded of them, from a fear of loſing the little left. The Conde, therefore, ſtill thinks himſelf ſecure from any hoſtile acts, and laughs at all menaces, not from a thought of being able to make any reſiſtance, but from a perſuaſion that none will be attempted for the preſent: Yet as that ſecurity muſt end with the advantages of trade, which he is determined to deſtroy, he finds it neceſſary to prepare work for them elſewhere, to the end that they may then be employed in compoſing the broils and diſturbances, which he is at preſent raiſing in all the Courts of Europe."

It is talked that 1,500,000 l. will be raiſed by way of lottery and annuities, at three per cent. 900,000 l. by annuities, and 600,000 l. by lottery tickets, at 10 l. each. The whole 600,000 l. it is ſaid, will be divided into prizes, and there is to be about one blank and an half to a prize.

We hear that on and ſince the 23*d inſt. there have arrived in the river from Embden, Holland, French Flanders, &c. upwards of* 50 ſail of ſhips with wheat; the cargoes of 38 of which conſiſted in the whole of 15,912 quarters. The contents of the reſt are not yet known.

Some letters from Paris mention, that his Excellency the Earl of Rochfort, had lately preſented a memorial to the court of Verſailles; and a report prevailed there, that it related to the ſpeedy removal of the auxiliary troops of France from the iſland of Corſica.

It is reported, that in the new Lottery there is to be one prize of 20,000 l. three of 10,000 l. and four of 5000 l. and the blanks to be entirely ſunk.

April 2. Very extraordinary circumſtances have been diſcovered in the relations and accounts of an opulent company.

It is ſaid, that his Serene Highneſs the Prince of Orange will certainly viſit England this ſummer.

It was currently reported yeſterday, that orders are given, to ſtop the further exportation of naval or military ſtores to Portugal; but we mention it only as a report.

We hear that ſeven ſail of North American veſſels, laden with corn, were arrived at Whitehaven when the poſt came away.

April 4. It is ſaid that our Governors in America are ordered, for the future, to ſend over (annually) the ſtate and condition of the province over which they preſide.

K I N G S T O N (in J A M A I C A) April 18.

Wedneſday Afternoon arrived at Port-Royal, in 17 Days Paſſage, an open Expreſs-Boat, from the Bay of Honduras, with an Account that the Spaniards have revolted there; ſeized ſeveral Negroes, the Properties of the Inhabitants, as alſo murdered ſome of the Bay Men.

S T. J O H N (in Antigua) April 22.

We hear that His Excellency William Woodley, Eſq; Commander in Chief of the Leeward Iſlands, will not arrive here before the latter End of this Year.

Yeſterday the Snow Brothers, Thomas Looney, Maſter, from the Coaſt of Africa, with 260 Slaves, by an Accident took Fire, as ſhe was riding at Anchor in our Harbour; immediately the Boats belonging to the Shipping, put off to her Aſſiſtance, all the Negroes except one or two were ſaved, but the Ship blew up, and afterwards was entirely conſumed.

B O S T O N, May 14.

On Friday Evening, the 24th of April, the Houſe of Mr. Joſiah Willard, of New Braintree, with a conſiderable Part of his Furniture, Proviſions, &c. were conſumed by Fire: It was occaſioned by a little Boy's going into a Chamber, where was a Quantity of Flax, which took Fire from his Candle, and ſo inſtantly communicated to other Combuſtibles, as rendered it impracticable to be extinguiſhed, although Men and Water were near at Hand.

It is ſaid there is advice from the Weſt-Indies, that two Whaling Veſſels have been ſeized at St. Vincents, for ſmuggling Coffee from that Iſland.

Yeſterday Joſeph Andrews, who has been confined in Charlestown Goal, for ſome Time paſt, for the Murder of the Captain, Mate, and Boy, belonging to a New-York Veſſel, in the Weſt-Indies, was put on board a Sloop bound to New-York: Two Conſtables of the Town went as a Guard to him.

We learn from Louiſburgh, that the Winter paſt was extremely ſevere there, and ſo intenſely cold, that boiling Water, placed in the open Air, was frozen to a ſolid Ice in 25 Seconds.

Salem, May 15. By Captain Thomas Lee, who arrived here Yeſterday in 39 Days from Cadiz, we are informed of the following remarkable Event, viz. That about the Beginning of April laſt, a few Days before he ſailed, the whole Fraternity of Jeſuits were, by an Order from Court, expelled that City, in the following Manner. Parties of Soldiers were, without any previous Notice, placed before the Doors of all the Houſes, Convents, &c. where any of that Society were ſuppoſed to be, in the Dead of Night, and continued there till the next Night, when it was ſaid the City was cleared of them. It is thought they were ſhipped to Italy. The common Report at Cadiz was, that all the Effects of theſe Fathers were confiſcated, and that the abovementioned Orders were to be executed throughout the Kingdoms of Old and New Spain, the ſame Night.

N E W-H A V E N, May 16.

We hear from Ripton, that while three of Joſeph Boſtwick's Children were playing in a Room, one of them took down a Gun, which accidentally diſcharged, and ſhot another below the Navel, of which Wound it died ſoon after.

We hear that on Wedneſday Night laſt, the Barn of Joatham Hitchcock, of Cheſter, was burnt to the Ground, occaſioned by Children going in with a Candle to take Care of a Calf. And the Candle fired about 300 Weight of Flax.

P H I L A D E L P H I A, May 28.

Extract of a Letter from Barbados, dated April 24, 1767.

"About Seven o'Clock this Morning we had a Shock of an Earthquake, which laſted about a Minute, but did no Damage; about 15 Minutes after, the Sea on a ſudden fell ſeveral Feet (it being low Water) and left the Ground in the Dock bare, then roſe again ſeveral Feet, ſo that the Water would have come over the Wharfs, had not the Tide been out; immediately after, it fell ſo low as to leave the Boats dry on the Ground, and directly the Sea came tumbling in again with great Force, then ruſhed back with the ſame Rapidity, and continued ebbing and flowing, in this Manner, about Half an Hour. It is imagined, from theſe Appearances, that a dreadful Earthquake has happened in ſome Part of Europe, as the Earthquake at Liſbon occaſioned the ſame Flux and Reflux of Water here, though it was not attended with an Earthquake."

Extract of another Letter from Barbados, of the ſame Date.

"About 7 o'Clock this Morning, we had a ſevere Shock of an Earthquake, which continued a full Minute, but has done no Damage, and ſhortly after ſucceeded by a Flux and Reflux of the Water for about 20 Minutes and more, and fell ſeveral different Times 8 or 9 Feet perpendicular, but did no Damage, ſave overſetting and filling ſeveral Boats lying at the Wharfs."

I AGREE with the Printer of the Chronicle, and it is much to be lamented, that there are Men in every Country, whoſe Hearts are as vile as he has deſcribed them; yet, if I know my own, he has ranked me with a Claſs to which I do not belong.

I am much ſurprized at his ſaying, I have repreſented him as void of Prudence and Humanity, and cannot help telling him, in my aukward Manner, that ſaying if a Perſon had done, or left undone, a certain Matter, he would have diſcovered himſelf to have been one of more Prudence, &c. was not repreſenting him as void of thoſe Qualities. Certain it is, that I did not deſign to repreſent him as ſuch, and if I am miſtaken in the Meaning of thoſe Words, I aſk his Pardon, and do here acknowledge, that I do think him a Gentleman of ſome Prudence and Precaution, of which he has given a late notable Specimen.

Being truly averſe to any Diſpute on this Occaſion, I ſhould not have given you the Trouble of this, had I not obſerved in his third Article of Particulars, an Inſinuation as to yourſelves, who have had nothing to do with this, or the laſt Piece ſent you by me, either as to the writing or procuring them. And as to Authority granted me, I ſought for none, my Motives being very different from Malice, Envy or Ill-will, as he would repreſent them. Nothing but a feeling for the Afflictions of thoſe concerned, could have prevailed on me to have wrote thoſe few Lines.

WHEREAS the Partnership of HOWELL and HARTLEY has been dissolved for several Months past, of which public Notice has been given; also requesting all Persons indebted, to make immediate pay; and as very little regard has been paid thereto, I do now inform them, that if they do not pay in a very short Time, their Accounts will be delivered into an Attorney's Hands, without any respect to Persons, as there is an immediate Necessity of said Company's Accounts being settled, and are in my Hands, who am fully impowered to settle the same. JAMES HARTLEY.

N. B. Said Hartley has a likely Negroe Boy to dispose of.

To be SOLD in Virginia by the subscriber, and may be entered upon next fall,

A VALUABLE tract of land, containing near 30,000 acres, lying upon both sides of James river, at the falls thereof, and extending many miles as well below as above the said falls, including the landing at Westham, whereon warehouses are erected that receive the produce of the back country, brought down the river in canoes to that place, in order to be afterwards shipped off from Shockoes.

The high land on the said tract is rich, level, and well wooded, the low grounds are extremely fine, and much more valuable than any of the kind on the river; on either side of the said river there are places fit for erecting furnaces, forges, and mill works of any sort whatever, with inexhaustible streams of water. The situations on the said lands are both healthy and delightful, having on them some of the finest views on the continent.

There are various and valuable improvements on the said land, viz. on the north side of the said river is a well built town, called Shockoes, tenanted out to merchants and others, with two setts of public ware-houses for the inspection of tobacco; the whole is in good repair, and the greatest part lately built; on the south side of the said river there is a well built town, called Rockey Ridge; the houses and ware-houses, chiefly in the tenure and occupation of merchants, also a sett of public ware-houses for the inspection of tobacco, and adjoining the said town is Stagland forge, a large strong new well built forge, with two hammers, and every thing compleat, on a never failing stream; likewise a new well built merchant grist mill, with two pair of stones, and a boulting mill, all in exceeding good order. Over and above those improvements, there are many very fine plantations on the said lands, with good houses, and every convenience, for cropping. Likewise several good dwelling-houses, particularly one known by the name of Belvidere, a beautiful seat, with offices, coach-house, stables, garden, orchard, &c. fit for the accommodation of a genteel family, also a valuable ferry from Shockoes to Rockey Ridge, and a profitable fishery on both sides the river, worth upwards of 200l. yearly. The vast advantages resulting to trade from the happy situation of the said estate, are too many to be enumerated; and as the produce of the vast extent of the colony above the falls, and also part of North-Carolina, must necessarily be brought to one or other of the said towns, it may justly be said they are the center of the trade of this province.

The whole will be sold together, or laid off in lots, as may best suit the buyer and seller. Tbctf. WILLIAM BYRD.
